Re-Appointed To Council

On Judicial Board
Since 1935—Now
in West Indies.

Dean Bernard C. Gavit, of the School of Law, has been re-appointed to a four-year term on the Indiana Judicial Council by Gov. Henry F. Schricker, the Associated Press reported last night.

The Judicial Council is a State agency, where members are appointed by the Governor, that makes a continual study of government conditions and problems and recommendations to the Governor concerning needed legislation. The group also makes surveys relating to legal matters within the State.

Two other members re-appointed to the Council were Charles A. Lowe, of Lawrenceburg, and Loudon L. Bomberger, of Hammond.

Dean Gavit has been a member of the Judicial Council since its beginning in 1935. He is now in the West Indies.
