LIBRARY MANAGING SCHOOL'S SSRN

The Law Library is now managing SSRN uploads and the Legal Scholarship Network: Legal Studies Research Paper Series, Indiana University Maurer School of Law e-journal.

As an online platform dedicated to the dissemination of research, abstracts, and papers, SSRN is an important resource for promoting faculty scholarship. SSRN provides free access to most content, and tools for easily sharing papers via email and social media. SSRN also tracks and compiles data on every abstract page that can be used in calculating scholarly impact. Paper and author statistics include abstract views, downloads, and citations. Initially focused on social sciences, SSRN has grown to include applied sciences, health sciences, humanities, and more.

SSRN's Research Paper Series provides a branded homepage and e-journal for organizations and institutions to aggregate and disseminate research and scholarship. Maurer's e-journal is part of the Legal Scholarship Network, which includes e-journals on specific legal topics and e-journals from many other schools. Users can subscribe for free.

Library management of SSRN uploads and the e-journal will help facilitate updating of the Faculty Bibliography pages, the Digital Repository, ongoing tracking of scholarly impact data, and promotion of faculty scholarship. Please send your SSRN uploads to the Faculty Services email address facserv@indiana.edu. If you have any questions about SSRN, please email Maggie Kiel-Morse at facserv@indiana.edu.
