INDIANA UNIVERSITY
MAURER SCHOOL OF LAW
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS
SEPTEMBER 21, 2012
THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Distinguished Service Award was established in 1997 to recognize graduates of the Indiana University Maurer School of Law who have distinguished themselves in service to their communities and the school in ways far exceeding traditional business, professional, and civic duties.

Through their hard work, passion, and accomplishments, these alumni define Indiana Law's ideals for community service and serve as accomplished role models for our Law School and the greater community.

LYNN H. COYNE, JD’72
Lynn Coyne is assistant vice president for real estate at Indiana University — Bloomington. He is widely respected for his broad vision and behind-the-scenes commitment to the legal profession and the local community. His activities include terms as chair of the board of trustees of the Monroe County School Corporation, Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce, Bloomington Economic Development Corporation, and Monroe County Economic Development Commission. He now serves on the Bloomington Monroe County Metropolitan Planning Organization, which he has chaired, and on the board of IU Health Bloomington Hospital. He has served as chair of the supervisory committee of the Indiana University Credit Union and as chair of the Monroe County Chapter of the American Red Cross, where he was designated a life member of the board.

MARK E. HOLCOMB, JD’87
Since arriving in the Pacific Northwest in 1987, Mark Holcomb has contributed tirelessly to his community in a variety of ways. A partner at Morton McGoldrick, P.S., in Tacoma, Washington, he enjoys a reputation as a creative real estate and corporate attorney with a willingness to lend a hand. Several Tacoma-area organizations have benefited from his counsel, including the Mary Bridge Children’s Foundation, the Boys and Girls Club of South Puget Sound, the Salvation Army, the Tacoma YWCA, and the Job Carr Cabin Museum. He has also volunteered for the Children’s Museum of Tacoma, WayOut Kids, Pacific Lutheran University, American Leadership Forum of Tacoma/Pierce County, the Humane Society for Tacoma and Pierce County, and Tacoma School of the Arts.

ZALDWAYNAKA (Z) SCOTT, JD’83
A partner at Kaye Scholer LLP in Chicago, Z Scott has donated countless hours to civic and community service, including serving as board chair of the Chicago Housing Authority and of the Chicago Area Project, a not-for-profit organization supporting activities for inner-city at-risk children. She also founded the first summit of black women lawyers in Chicago. In 2010, Illinois Governor Pat Quinn appointed Scott to the Admissions Review Commission, which was charged with reviewing the admissions processes at the University of Illinois. Scott’s other activities include Chicago State University, where she has served as vice chair of the board and chair of the finance and audit committee. She is a past board member of the Black Women Lawyers Association of Greater Chicago.
