2016 Distinguished Service Award Program

Follow this and additional works at: https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/dsa

Part of the Legal Biography Commons, and the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation
"2016 Distinguished Service Award Program" (2016). Distinguished Service Awards. 13.
https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/dsa/13

This Program is brought to you for free and open access by the Awards at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Distinguished Service Awards by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact rvaughan@indiana.edu.
Indiana University
Maurer School of Law

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS

September 30, 2016
Program
Welcome
Austen L. Parrish
Dean and James H. Rudy Professor of Law

Presentation of the honorees
Scott Bassett, '86
Joe Hogsett, '81
Randy Lebedoff, '75

Reception to follow

The Honorees

Scott Bassett, '86
Scott Bassett is currently a principal with Deloitte Consulting, LLP and works in management consulting in the Washington, DC area. Scott's career spans more than 30 years, largely focused on transforming service delivery in back-office areas like human resources, finance and IT. Scott launched a career with Ernst & Young LLP in 1986. He eventually grew within the company in areas of human capital and outsourcing services, before returning to consulting in 2007. Mr. Bassett is a Trustee of the Endowment Fund of Beta-Theta of Kappa Sigma, Inc. and a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church. He has been a member of the Law School's Alumni Board for the past 10 years and served as president in 2015. Scott is known for his active leadership and is widely credited with implementing impactful and strategic initiatives.
Joe Hogsett, ’81
Born in Rushville, Ind., Mayor Joe Hogsett has lived and worked in Indianapolis for more than 35 years. Joe served six years as Indiana's Secretary of State and four as United States Attorney, cracking down on gun crimes and street gangs while breaking all-time records for the number of criminal convictions and the length of sentences. On November 3, 2015, Joe was elected to serve as the 49th Mayor for the City of Indianapolis. As Mayor, he is using the same results-oriented approach that he cultivated as federal prosecutor to address the city's violent crime epidemic, increase transparency and make sure that city resources are being invested in our neighborhoods. He received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University before earning graduate degrees from Indiana University, Butler University, Christian Theological Seminary, and the IU Maurer School of Law.

Randy Lebedoff, ’75
Randy Lebedoff is the senior vice president and general counsel and secretary for the Star Tribune Media Company LLC in Minneapolis. She is the former vice president and general counsel of Twin Cities Public Television, Inc. in St. Paul, and a former partner with Faegre and Benson in Minneapolis, where she practiced in the business litigation department, focusing mainly on antitrust and other commercial litigation. Randy has a long history of being active in many professional and civic organizations. She has also served on the boards of several nonprofits, including the Minnesota Newspaper Association and Milkweed Editions, the YWCA of Minneapolis, Planned Parenthood of Minnesota, and the Fund for the Legal Aid Society, among others.
The Distinguished Service Award

The Distinguished Service Award was established in 1997 to recognize graduates of the Indiana University Maurer School of Law who have distinguished themselves in service to their communities and the school in ways far exceeding traditional business, professional, and civic duties.

Through their hard work, passion, and accomplishments, these alumni define Indiana Law's ideals for community service and serve as accomplished role models for our Law School and the greater community.