The Law School Commencement Dinner

---

Friday, June 2, 1922

University Cafeteria

7:15 P. M.

"Nothing less than the building up of a Law School that shall be inferior to none west of the mountains, one in which the student will be so trained that he shall never, in the attorney, forget the scholar and the gentleman."

From the announcement of the opening of the Law School in 1842 by the Board of Trustees.

The Lawyer's Oath of Office

"You shall do no falsehood, nor consent to any to be done in the court, and if you know of any to be done you shall give knowledge thereof to the Justices of the Court, or some of them, that it may be reformed. You shall not wittingly and willingly promote, sue or procure to be sued any false or unlawful suit, nor give aid or consent to the same. You shall delay no man for lucre or malice, but you shall use yourself in the office of an attorney within the court according to the best of your learning and discretion, and with all good fidelity as well to the courts as to your clients."

As prescribed in Massachusetts in 1701, in Connecticut in 1708, in Pennsylvania in 1726, in Virginia in 1732.
