EVENTS & LECTURES

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION TODAY ON FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS

A roundtable discussion on "Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press in Authoritarian States" will be held today, Oct. 7, 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m., in the Moot Court Room. The International Law Society, Indiana University East Asian Center, School of Journalism, REEL, and the Center for the Study of Law and Democracy are sponsors. The keynote speaker will be Anthony Kuhn, Beijing reporter for the Los Angeles Times. Professor Dan Conkle will moderate, with responses by Professor Fred Cate and Professors Seok-Fang Sim (Dept. of Communication and Culture) and Steven Raymer (School of Journalism). A reception will follow.

PANEL DISCUSSION TOMORROW ON CIVIL LIBERTIES

Tomorrow (Oct. 8) at noon, the American Constitution Society presents a panel discussion on civil liberties as part of the Alliance for Justice's yearly "First Monday" events. The panelists will include Ken Falk, Legal Director of the Indiana Civil Liberties Union, our own Professor Pat Baude of the IU School of Law, and Susan Brooks, Assistant Attorney General for the Southern District of Indiana. Please join us in room 121 for a lively discussion of civil liberties post-9/11. Pizza will be provided!

JUDGE HAMILTON TO SPEAK FRIDAY

As part of a nationwide American Constitution Society program called "Sentencing and the Federal Judiciary," ACS will host Federal Judge David F. Hamilton, who will speak at noon on Friday, Oct. 11, in room 121, on the subject of federal sentencing guidelines. It's an honor for the law school to host Judge Hamilton this meeting promises to be truly informative.

TWO VIEWS: AN ENGAGEMENT OF THE COMMUNITY ON THE DEATH PENALTY

A series of events will be held on campus during the week of October 11-18 to examine opposing views on the death penalty. Note that the Oct. 16 event, a panel discussion with faculty and students, will be held at the Law School. More information is available at the Web site www.twoview.org.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

Professor Fred Cate testified on "Social Security Numbers in Public Records" before a special committee of the Indiana State Legislature. His book, Privacy in the Information Age, was translated and republished last week in Arabic.

Visiting Professor Steve Heyman presented a paper on "Ideological Conflict and the First Amendment" at a symposium on Law and Cultural Conflict at Chicago-Kent College of Law on Sept. 27. Proceedings of the conference, which Professor Heyman helped to organize, will be published next year in a symposium issue of the Chicago-Kent Law Review.

On Oct. 4, Professor Dawn Johnsen spoke about congressional power and federalism at Columbia Law School at the National Strategy Conference to Stop the Supreme Court's Rollback of Civil Rights.

Friday, Oct. 18: Letter Writing, Bar Exams, and General Job Search Resources. Deans Kearney and Palmer will present students with information about employment letter writing and will introduce a number of important employer research tools. They will also discuss bar exams, bar preparation courses, optional curricular training (OCT), and optional practical training (OPT).

Friday, Nov. 1: Interviewing and Resumes. Deans Kearney and Palmer will conduct an interviewing skills workshop and discuss with students their resumes. They will also answer any other questions that students may have.

GRADUATE STUDENT PROFILE

Meichang Zhang graduated with an LL.B. from China University of Political Science and Law in 1987. Now an associate professor at his alma mater, he teaches legal English and conducts comparative studies of U.S. and P.R.C. law. "I am very lucky," he says "that I have the chance to study at IU. It will benefit my professional work and research activities."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CLASS OF 1987 15-YEAR REUNION

The Law School's Class of 1987 will celebrate its 15th reunion in the back room at Bear's Place (1316 East Third Street) on Saturday, Oct. 12, from noon to 3:00 p.m. Faculty and staff are welcome!

MAKE YOUR CARING COUNT: LAW SCHOOL UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF

This week the Law School kicks off its participation in the Indiana University United Way Campaign. Last year our faculty contributed over $12,000. The campus goal is to provide $600,000 to United Way Community Services of Monroe County, nearly one-third of the total community campaign.

New this year is an exciting matching opportunity provided by the Lilly Endowment. United Way will receive matching funds for every new Vanguard gift of $1,000 and for every 25% increase in existing Vanguards. This allows your gift to go much further.

Student involvement is also strongly encouraged. As university representatives, your role in this community is vital and the positive impact you can make immeasurable. Currently, the Kelley School of Business and the School of Geology are implementing student campaigns. Both schools are hosting new fund-raising activities as well as channeling current fund-raising events through United Way to take advantage of the Lilly matching opportunity. Students and interested groups are encouraged to contact IU Campaign Coordinator and fellow classmate Matt Pontius mpontius@indiana.edu.

The United Way campaign is extremely flexible. You can contribute to the Community Care Fund, which benefits the 24 member agencies. You can also designate funds to any member agency or to any not-for-profit organization in the Monroe County area. United Way has also developed a separate tornado relief fund to help those agencies involved in providing services to those recently affected. United Way can effectively send your gift where you want it to go. Your gift is used to build a healthy community, meet emergency needs, and nurture the next generation. In these ways, United Way touches the lives of one-third of the people in Monroe County.

Recent devastating events and the changing local economy make it especially important that we all help to meet the needs of those in our community. Let's aspire to really make a difference by increasing our participation and the total contribution donated by the Law School. Please Make Your Caring Count .join us in giving to the United Way.

TRIAL COMPETITION TEAM TRY-OUTS

Try-outs for the 2002-03 Trial Competition Team will take place November 1-3. Students may sign up any time between now and October 24 by contacting Coach Tanford, either in person or by e-mail at tanford@indiana.edu. The case file and other information is available on the Trial Team's web site. A mini-course in basic trial advocacy is being offered Mondays from 5:30-7:30 in room 219 for students who have not taken Trial Process.
