The law firm of Rappaport, Kipp and Lieber has moved its offices to the Illinois Building, corner of Illinois and Market Streets, Indianapolis. The firm is composed of Leo M. Rappaport, Albrecht, R. C. Kipp and Walther Lieber. Gerald Hall was admitted to the Gibson County Bar Association on recommendation of the Gibson County Bar Association on March 22, 1926. Mr. Hall took his law course at the University of Illinois.

A number of women were admitted to the bar at the District of Columbia on March 9. Among these were two citizens of Indiana, Mrs. Martha R. Gold of Knox and Miss Nita S. Hinman of Evansville. Mrs. Gold, Secretary to Senator George Moses of New Hampshire, is Clerk to the Senate Post Office Committee, and also Clerk of the National Republican Senatorial Committee.

Mr. Clifford O. Wild, a graduate of the University of Chicago has been admitted to the Bar and practice at Logansport in association with Mr. Paul Myers, an attorney of that city.

Mr. Burr Glenn of Huntington was admitted to the Huntington County Bar on March 25, 1926. Of the fourteen candidates who took the written examination for admission to the Huntington County Bar at this time, Mr. Glenn had the highest grade.
