On Thursday, Oct. 26, Phi Delta Phi's holds its biannual blood drive in the law school student lounge from 10 am 3 p.m. You can sign-up online at www.givelife.org to get priority for your chosen time. After giving, enjoy cookies donated by Buffa Louie's. See you there!

ACS Supreme Court Preview Event

American Constitution Society presents its 2006 Supreme Court Preview Event Oct. 26 from noon 1 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. Professors James A. Barnes, Kevin Brown, Dawn Johnsen, and Julia Lamber will discuss five upcoming oral arguments involving global warming (Commonwealth of Massachusetts v. EPA), affirmative action (Parents Involved in Community Schools v. Seattle School District; Meredith v. Jefferson County Public Schools), punitive damages (Philip Morris USA v. Williams), abortion rights (Gonzales v. Carhart; Gonzales v. Planned Parenthood), and employment discrimination (Ledbetter v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.). Following the case discussion we will Quiet Revolution, a film released last week by the Center for American Progress and the Alliance for Justice, detailing the Court's conservative evolution. The 20-minute documentary, narrated by The West Wing star Bradley Whitford, features Professor Johnsen along with political stand-outs Barak Obama, Harold Koh, Cass Sunstein, and Bruce Ackerman. Visit www.allianceforjustice.org for a sneak peek. We hope you will join us for this important discussion of current constitutional and national issues.

Phi Alpha Delta Fashion Show!

Do you have a golf outing or cocktail party with your summer employer and want to know what is appropriate to wear? Or what about what to wear to work on a daily basis? What does business casual really mean? Find out at the Phi Alpha Delta Fashion Show at Jake's, Oct. 26th at 7 p.m. Plus, there will be etiquette tips for an interview or the workplace, amazing door prizes, and more. Bring your checkbooks. Models will be auctioned off with date packages such as a spa day, sporting events, dinner/movie, etc. We also have amazing door prizes! Tickets are $5 and available for sale beginning Monday, Oct. 23. A clothing drive will also take place this week.

Upon reasonable inspection of clothing, $1 per item donated will be deducted from the ticket price. All clothing and proceeds will be donated to the Shalom Center to help economically disadvantaged individuals obtain proper interview attire and interviewing skills.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Halloween Trick-or-Treat at the Law School and Bryan Hall on Oct. 30

The Older and Wiser Law Students (OWLS) trick-or-treating event for all children of Law School faculty, staff, and students has expanded this year to include children of all graduate and professional students. On Monday, Oct. 30, 2006, from 4 p.m. 5:15 p.m. children and their parents are invited to trick-or-treat through the main Law School building, the Lewis Building, and Bryan Hall. Costumed children should gather with an adult at the front lobby of the Law School beginning at 4 p.m. Trick-or-Treating will last until 5:15 p.m., with light refreshments available in the student lounge. The event concludes with a costume parade through the School. Take advantage of this safe, fun opportunity for Halloween celebration and the chance for kids to see where their moms and dads work or go to school. Law and graduate student volunteers will be on hand, and thanks to the efforts of the GPSO, the IU Police Department has kindly agreed to provide assistance with cross-walk safety across Indiana Avenue. GPSO has also arranged for IMU Catering to provide some very special treats at Bryan Hall. For more information, (including volunteer opportunities) please contact John MacKenzie at jpmacken@indiana.edu

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bailiffs Still Needed

The School will be transformed this week when 150 Moot Court competitors begin Round 1 of oral arguments. This is always an exciting time of year, and, as a 1L, you can participate as a bailiff! It takes only an hour and a half to learn about appellate advocacy, meet local attorneys and alumni, become more active in student activities, and meet more 2L and 3L friends. If you have not signed up, there is still time! We need bailiffs for several nights of the competition including Thursday, Oct. 26, 8 p.m.; Friday, Oct. 27, at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.; and Saturday, Oct. 28, at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. To sign-up for these or other available dates, please fill out the simple form at <http://www.law.indiana.edu/webinit/mootcourt/registration/bailiff.shtml>. If you have already signed up, please double-check on the board outside of the Moot Court Office that we have registered you correctly and that you are able to come at that time.

Register to Vote

Visit the table in the lobby this week to register to vote. Anyone who isn't registered already, or who would like to register in Indiana, is encouraged to stop by.

Making a Difference for Children

Would you like to make a difference for a child while also earning invaluable legal experience? Owen County Court Appointed Special Advocates are interested in law students to represent children's best interests in abuse and neglect cases. The program will train and supervise you to represent children in the juvenile court process. Please contact Tina Morris at owencountycasa@yahoo.com, or call 812-829-5030.

Join ABA Student Division

Join the ABA Student Division at www.abanet.org/lcd for great network, leadership, and career opportunities.

SBA Wants Your Books!

2L and 3Ls please donate your books and supplements to the SBA bookstore. Include your name, graduation year, and price. Keep in mind that some books have come out with newer editions.
