Lecture by Hon. Vaughn R. Walker: "On the Bench and in the Game"

Hon. Vaughn R. Walker was a federal district court judge for 21 years. Among other interesting and controversial cases he decided, he struck down California's Proposition 8, which bans same-sex marriage. While Judge Walker will not be at liberty to discuss the Proposition 8 case because it is still on appeal, he will offer other fascinating insights from his years on the bench. Professor Geyh and Professor Judy Failer from the Department of Political Science will provide commentary. Sponsored by the LGBT Alumni Board; the Center for Law, Society, and Culture; OUTlaw; College of Arts and Sciences; University Graduate School; Office of Affirmative Action; Indiana Memorial Union Board; and Out at Kelley. Moot Court Room, 3:00; reception following.

Announcements

Milton Stewart Fellows Applications Now Available

1L and 2L students interested in the 2012 Milton Stewart Fellows Summer Internship Project, which includes overseas internship opportunities in Brazil, China, India or Korea, are invited to apply starting now and running through December 19, 2011. A limited number of positions are available in each country. Applications are available through Symplicity; select the "jobs and scholarships" tab and search for "2012 Summer Internship Abroad" or job number 4968. Application requires submission of a resume and completed application form, which includes a brief personal statement. Applicants may apply to more than one program using the same application form and should be sure to explain their interest in being a Stewart Fellow and preparation for taking part in these programs in the personal statement. Selected applicants will be invited to first-round interviews in late January/early February 2012. To learn more information about the programs prior to applying, please contact Ms. Lara Gose or Dean Lesley Davis in the Office of International Programs, room 220.

Student Animal Legal Defense Fund Trip

The Student Animal Legal Defense Fund invites you to the annual Pumpkin Party at the Exotic Feline Rescue Center on Saturday, November 5th. The Exotic Feline Rescue Center is a sanctuary to over 225 exotic cats (including lions, tigers, leopards, and more). During this tour, you will have the opportunity to see these animals up close and personal while they are playing with pumpkins. If you are interested in attending, email Alezah Trigueros at atriguer@indiana.edu for information.

Movember: Supporting Men's Health Research

You may notice a few law students growing moustaches this month. Movember challenges men to change their appearance and the face of men's health by growing a moustache. The rules are simple: Start Movember 1st clean-shaven and then grow a moustache for the entire month. The moustache becomes the ribbon for men's health, the means by which awareness and funds are raised for cancers that affect men. Much like the commitment to run or walk for charity, the men of Movember commit to growing a moustache for 30 days. If you are interested in participating, or making a donation in support of those participating, please contact Mario Treto at mtreto@indiana.edu or go to Movember's website.

BLSA Gong Show

The Black Law Students' Association invites you to The Gong Show on Wednesday, November 3 at Serendipity Martini Bar at 8:30 pm. The Gong Show is an annual talent show showcasing the best of the Law School talents. Tickets will be on sale during the lunch hour this week $5 (pre-sale) and $7 (at the door).

Composite Photo Sitting Times Announced

Students who are graduating in December 2011 and May 2012 and wish to be included in the graduation composite should sign up for a photo sitting. The sign-up process is online this year. Go to chadon.com. On that home page, under the quick links, choose the first option: sign up for composite portrait sitting. Follow the instructions to create a user ID and password. Then find a date and time to sign up for your portrait.

These are the only days and times available in the Law School; students who miss the sittings in the law school will have to make other arrangements at their own cost with the photographer if they want to be included. Remaining times are:

Monday, October 31: noon to 9 p.m. (room 222)

Tuesday, November 1: noon to 9 p.m. (room 340)

Research Assistant Needed

Professor Cole is looking for a research assistant to help him survey the formal water law systems in Colorado, New Mexico, and Kenya. The only prerequisite for the job is that the student must be beyond the first year of law school. He would prefer someone who (a) has taken Professor Fischman's water law course and (b) has some familiarity with the legal system of Kenya.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

The Indiana Law Annotated (ILA) is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (av@exchange.iu.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
