Room 213, noon.

So You Want to Be a Feminist Law Forum Leader?

Please bring your lunch and join the Feminist Law Forum for its 2013-2014 e-board elections. Positions include two co-presidents, vice president, and treasurer. Prior involvement in FLF is preferred but not required. All interested students are welcome! Upcoming events will also be discussed. Questions? Email Amanda Stephens (as48@indiana.edu) or Leah Seigel (leahlseigel@gmail.com). Room 120, noon.

Film and Q&A Session: The House I Live In

Plan to attend a Q&A session with one of the producers of the new documentary detailing America's failed drug war. David Kuhn, JD'93, a former public defender turned film producer, will be on hand to facilitate a discussion about the issues raised by this fascinating account. Click here for more information about the film. In anticipation of the screening, please join us for an informal conversation with Mr. Kuhn about the film, his career, or other areas of interest. Moot Court Room, 3:00. The film itself will be shown at 7:00 p.m. in Jordan Hall room 124.

Pro Bono Fellow Applications Now Being Accepted

Applications are now being accepted by the Access to Justice Program for a pro bono fellow to work in the 2013-2014 school year. A 1L will be chosen to help coordinate the school's student pro bono program with the rising 3L fellow. Responsibilities include coordinating a pro bono fair, tracking student pro bono hours, working with student organizations and the Office of Career and Professional Development, conducting student outreach, and acting as liaison with attorneys to match students with pro bono projects. Traditionally, fellows have received full funding to attend the ABA's Equal Justice Conference in May. Students traditionally receive a stipend. Applications consisting of a cover letter with a statement of interest and a resume should be sent electronically to Anne Fishbeck at afishbec@indiana.edu by Friday, March 15, 2013 by 5pm. Please redact GPA and class rank.

Gender Equality Happy Hour

Network with IU Law alumni, lawyers, professors and students as we discuss feminism and the law. The event is co-sponsored by the Feminist Law Society and the Feminist Law Forum. RSVP by March 18th to Feminist Law Forum Co-President Amanda Stephens at as48@indiana.edu. Refreshments and appetizers will be served. Dress is business casual. Directions and car pooling information will be provided when you reply. Nominal fee for parking. Friday, March 22, 7:30-9:00 p.m. Atrium, IU McKinney School of Law, 550 West New York Street, Indianapolis.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week (and, if requested, for the week after that). Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
