Federalist Society Lecture: Does the First Amendment Protect Religious Freedom for Hobby Lobby?
Under the Affordable Care Act, businesses are required to offer insurance that covers contraceptives for their employees. Some business owners have objected, arguing that this mandate requires them to violate their sincerely held religious beliefs protected by the First Amendment and the Religious Freedom and Restoration Act. But are businesses actually protected by these provisions? To help discuss this issue, we will hear from Matt Bowman, who represents one of the businesses and recently filed a cert petition to the U.S. Supreme Court in Conestoga Wood Specialties v. Sebelius. Professor Dan Conkle will provide commentary. Free Jimmy Johns provided. Room 125, noon.

Chicago Fall Break Trip Info Session

This info session will cover what to expect on the October 15th career explorations trip to Chicago. Anyone signed up for any of the Chicago sessions is highly encouraged to attend. Lunch will be provided to those who RSVP at least 24 hours in advance. Room 120, noon.

Christian Law Society Bible Study

Join the Protective Order Project in Recognizing October as Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Domestic Violence Awareness Month began in October of 1987. Over the years, its activities have been as varied and diverse as the month's participants but have a common theme: mourning those who have died because of domestic violence, celebrating those who have survived, and connecting those who work to end violence.

Join POP in raising awareness every weekday during the month of October during the lunch hour in the lobby, by:

• Participating in our ribbon campaign: Grab a free purple ribbon to wear and demonstrate support
Donate Clothing to Middle Way House: We will have a collection bin while tabling for any donated clothing to Middle Way House. All clothing is welcome, but there is a special push for much needed winter items.

Purchase a Maurer hoodie (or two!): Come check out the hoodie during the lunch hour, or order online. All profits will help fund the Protective Order Project, which provides legal assistance to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The online cart will close on Saturday, October 12, 2013, and we hope to deliver your hoodies to you shortly after fall break. If you have any hoodie-related questions, please contact Simone at simsprag@indiana.edu. For other questions, contact POP at POP@indiana.edu.

Socctoberfest Is Here!
Welcome to the Eleventh Annual JD/LLM Socctoberfest. This year's soccer match will take place on Saturday, October 26th at 5:00 p.m. at Karst Farm Park, on the west side of Bloomington. It is a co-ed event that welcomes all ability levels. After the games, which will end at approximately 7:00 p.m., we will have a cookout in the area adjacent to the soccer fields. Participants, fellow students, and family are all welcome to attend.

If you are a JD or LLM student interested in playing, please e-mail Professor Henderson (wihender@indiana.edu) and indicate your ability level based on the following four categories:

- A. I played competitively in college or high school
- B. I know how to play and have some athletic ability
- C. I can still run and kick things
- D. I can kick things

In addition, please note if you have ever played goalie.

For more information, including a map and game format, visit Socctoberfest’s website.

How to Schedule an Event
An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions
Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services
Send requests for AV services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
