This Week in the Law School

1Ls: Get the inside scoop on summer jobs from 2Ls today at lunch. Learn how to dress from the always dapper Don Gjerdingen Tuesday. Learn what black tie means so you can steal the show at the ball next month (tickets on sale now!). The PILF bowling tournament rolls into the IMU Thursday. We'll spare you the details. (Move to strike, your honor!).

Announcements

Indiana Law Book Club

The Jerome Hall Law Library is pleased to announce the first annual Indiana Law Book Club. Get to know your classmates, professors, and librarians better while discovering a good book in the process! The inaugural book club selection is The Last Days of Night by Graham Moore. The novel follows a young lawyer who is representing George Westinghouse in his patent dispute against Thomas Edison over who invented the lightbulb. Suggested discussion questions will be released in February. In the meantime, find others who are reading the book and set up a time to discuss it over lunch or coffee. Post a picture on Instagram using the hashtag #maurerbookclub and tag jeromehalllawlibrary for a chance to win a prize!

American Inns of Court competition open

The 2017 American Inns of Court Warren E. Burger Prize is open for applications. This writing competition has a submission deadline of July 1, 2017. The cash prize is $5,000 and the winning essay will be published in the South Carolina Law Review. Please see the student affairs bulletin board for additional details.

Cybersecurity Student Competition in Washington, D.C.

If you are interested in cybersecurity and collaborating with students in other programs at IU, the Cyber 9/12 Student Challenge is for you! In order to compete for a spot at the Cyber 9/12 Student Challenge, all registered teams must submit their answers to the three questions outlined below by January 31, 2017. Each answer should be 200 words or less. Please submit your answers to Anni Piiparinen (apiiparinen@atlanticcouncil.org). You may register your team before submitting your answers.

1. What would you consider to be the most significant cyber incident to date, and why?
2. What potential, future cyber incident keeps you up at night, why, and done by whom?
3. Why did you compose your team the way you did, and what do you expect will differentiate your team from others?

If you would like to be part of a team or if you have questions, please contact Prof. Joe Tomain (jtomain@indiana.edu).

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) by emailing (lawrooms@indiana.edu). If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact James Boyd (joboyd@indiana.edu; phone 855-0156). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
