This Week in the Law School

Welcome back! We've got an exciting spring semester lined up, so be sure to continue reading ILA every week and checking the Law School's events calendar to know what's on the horizon.

CSO has gone green for 2019. Please bring a cup or mug with you if you wish to grab coffee down in the office.

Monday, January 14

Course Planning: Tax and Related Courses

Join us for information about tax and other courses for this spring and next fall. It is just in time for you to schedule that extra or different course during the drop/add period. You will get information on the courses offered, which might be the courses that set you apart. Also, if you have questions, there will be professors and students that are happy to answer them. Room 120, noon.

Protective Order Project Return Volunteer Training

This training is mandatory for all those interested in continuing to volunteer with POP in the spring semester. If you already attended the new volunteer training once, then this is the training for you, even if you did not volunteer for POP last semester. Room 121, noon.

Outreach for Legal Literacy General Meeting

Room 122, noon.

Feminist Law Forum General Meeting

Room 124, noon.

Coffee with Dean Parrish

Join Dean Austen Parrish for casual conversation over complimentary coffee and cookies. Career Services Office, 2 to 3 p.m.

Protective Order Project New Volunteer Training

The Protective Order Project is a law student directed pro bono organization that assists victims of sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence in obtaining civil protective orders. This training is mandatory for all students who would like to begin volunteering this fall. Snacks provided. Please contact Stephanie Atallah (satallah@iu.edu) if you have any questions or concerns. Room 125, 5 p.m.

Tuesday, January 15

Composite Photo Make-up Session

All students (including LLM, MCL, SJD, PhD) graduating in 2019 are invited to take a photo to be included in the Law School's annual composite photo boards if you were not here in the fall semester. Room 340, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. (except 1 to 2 p.m.).

Careers in Cybersecurity and Privacy Law

Join the Cybersecurity and Privacy Law Association and the Career Services Office for a panel on careers in cybersecurity and privacy law. We will welcome alumni Stephen Reynolds, '08, from Ice Miller in Indianapolis; and Hanna Kim, '18, and Brett Wilson, '17, from PricewaterhouseCoopers in Indianapolis. Come join us and learn what it is like to work in cybersecurity and privacy law in both the law firm and consulting firm environment. Lunch will be provided. RSVP on CareerNet by noon the day before the event so we can order enough food. Room 120, noon.

Public Interest Law Foundation General Meeting

Room 125, noon.

Black Law Students Association General Meeting

Room 121, noon.

Asian Pacific American Law Student Association General Meeting

Lunch provided. Room 124, noon.

The Creative Stress Obliterator

Wednesday, January 16

Jerome Hall Lecture: Prof. Hendrik Hartog

Princeton University Professor (and former Indiana Law faculty member!) Hendrik Hartog will deliver this year's Jerome Hall Lecture. Prof. Hartog's presentation is called "The Trouble with Minna: a Case of Slavery and Emancipation in the Antebellum North." Moot Court Room, noon.

Call-out Meeting for Atlantic Council's Cyber 9/12 Strategy Challenge

The Atlantic Council's Cyber 9/12 Strategy Challenge, now in its 7th year of the competition, will take place on March 21-22 at Lockheed Martin's Global Vision Center. The Cyber 9/12 Challenge is a strategy competition where teams will respond to an evolving scenario through multiple rounds of competition. The competition is designed to encourage collaboration among various academic disciplines, from business and law to technology and engineering. Ultimately, however, it is a strategy and risk management competition. Room 125, 5 p.m.

Bar Support: Simulated MBE

What is the MBE? What will it test? What should I expect when I take the bar exam? What are the skills that are tested on the bar? Come find out by taking and reviewing a diagnostic test. Sign up by January 16th at noon to participate in the MBE diagnostic test. Results are disbursed when you attend the diagnostic follow-up session on Saturday, January 26th from 10am to 3pm in Rm. 121. For more information and/or to RSVP, please email Ms. Liz Bodamer at (ferrufie@indiana.edu). This is the final component of the Bar Support Program for the year. If you attended all the fall sessions, complete this MBE diagnostic test, and attend the Jan. 26th workshop, you will be entered in a drawing to win a prize. Room 120, 1 to 5 p.m.

Faculty and Staff News

Prof. Ken Dau-Schmidt presented “Will Capital Still Need Labor?: Regulating Employment in the Age of Artificial Intelligence” at a Roundtable On Artificial Intelligence and Employment at Oxford University, Oxford, England on November 27, 2018.

Prof. Rob Fischman's chapter on forestry is now published in the Environmental Law Institute's concise volume on "Legal Pathways to Deep Decarbonization in the United States: Summary & Key Recommendations" (Gerrard & Dernbach eds. 2018). A larger tome containing the full analysis will be published later this year. Last week, Fischman was also elected treasurer of the Association of American Law Schools' section on natural resources and energy law.

Prof. Sarah Jane Hughes has two articles coming out this month. The first is her annual contribution to the ABA's Business Lawyer's Cyberspace Survey. The article, with two co-authors (including Tom Kierner, '15, now at Womble Bond Dickinson in Atlanta), reviews the most important e-payments and financial services developments from June 15, 2017 to June 15, 2018. The second article, "More Steps Toward Fully Electronic Interbank Check Collection and Return: Amendments to Federal Reserve Board Regulation CC and a Regulatory Resolution of a Circuit Court Split," will appear in the January 2019 issue of the UCC Law Journal. It evaluates 2017 final rules promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System that create new classes of electronic payments instruments -- including the "electronic check" -- and establish a presumption in disputes about alterations of checks that the depository bank should bear the loss if the check itself is not available at the time of the dispute because of truncation. Both journals are peer-reviewed publications.

Congratulations to Prof. Victor Quintanilla, who has been named an Indiana University Bicentennial Professor.

Welcome to our newest Career Services Office employees: Senior Director Kate Caldwell and Director Lauren Sorrell, '12.

CSO Jobs of the Week

Warner Norcross & Judd in Grand Rapids MI seeks a diverse group of accomplished, team-oriented 1L students for our 10-week summer clerkship program. The exceptional candidate will have an outstanding academic record, exhibit strong communication skills, display an entrepreneurial spirit, and demonstrate leadership skills. CareeNet #14998

Legal Assistance Foundation in Chicago IL seeks 1Ls and 2Ls for summer internships. LAF believes that access to justice should not depend on the ability to afford an attorney. For over 50 years, LAF has provided people living in poverty in metropolitan Chicago with free civil legal services. CareerNet #14628 for 2Ls and #14629 for 1Ls.

Announcements

The Icons on Ammo Boxes

Indiana University's Center for Constitutional Democracy is pleased to host Ukrainian lawyer, politician and public figure Gennadiy Druzenko and artists Oleksandr Klymenko and Sofia Atlantova. Please join us on Monday, January 14th for a special one-day exhibit of a selection of works from The Icons on Ammo Boxes. Exquisite original, hand-painted icons on ammunition boxes will be displayed and sold as a fundraiser for mobile medical services organized by the Pirogov First Volunteer Mobile Hospital (PFVMH) on the front line in Ukraine. Gennadiy Druzenko, PFVMH Supervisory Board Chairman, will speak about the organization's work at 6 p.m. Please stop by for any portion of the evening to see the work and meet the artists. Light snacks and drinks will be provided. Monroe County Convention Center Cook Rooms, 5 to 8 p.m.

Basic mediation and restorative justice training

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 40-hour training program for community members interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, sources of conflict, and processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training should benefit any community member concerned with managing conflict and its resolution. The training provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM's programs.

The winter training will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. over five weekend days, February 16, 17, 23, 24, and March 2 at the Law School. The training will be led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners. Tuition is $300, or $275 if received by January 16.

Scholarships are available. For more information, e-mail training@ciamcenter.org or phone the office at (812) 336-8677. Go to our website, www.ciamcenter.org, to download an application. Payment can be made by credit card at the website or by check with your application.

About ILA

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) by emailing lawrooms@indiana.edu. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact James Boyd (joboyd@indiana.edu).

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
