Advocacy Board Applications Invited

All Sherman Minton Moot Court competitors are invited to apply for the 2020-21 Advocacy Board. If you have an interest in writing the moot court problem or otherwise helping organize and run the competition, please consider applying. For more information, please contact the 2019-20 Executive Advocacy Board at lawmoot@iu.edu.

Student Ambassador Call-Out

The Office of Graduate and International Programs plans to hire 4-6 student ambassadors to help LLM, SJD, and exchange students feel welcome and at home during their time in Bloomington and beyond. Student ambassadors will also assist the office with events throughout the year.

The ideal candidate will be an international student or a US student with international study and/or living experience. Ambassadors should also demonstrate a desire to help others acclimate and become part of a community. Ambassadors should be enthusiastic, patient, and generous with their time (within reason). The in-person commitment is greatest during orientation (August 10-14, 2020) and the first month of the fall semester, with email and other communications expected regularly. Outside of the orientation period, the weekly commitment should not exceed 1-2 hours. Unlike other ambassador positions, the work will begin this semester because newly confirmed students are assigned to an ambassador to help them prepare to come to Bloomington in August.

The compensation will be a $750 scholarship for spring/summer/fall ambassadors. Students who can help starting now and continuing through the summer and fall will be given first priority over students available for only a portion of the time. Students who are not available for the orientation in August may be interested in the two-semester visiting scholar ambassador position that has fewer in-person requirements.

If interested, please email Elizabeth Ryba at lawintl@indiana.edu with a brief expression of interest by Friday, March 6. You will then receive an application questionnaire.

Sharpen your advocacy skills with a timely issue requiring much creative research from a recent case denied transfer by the Indiana Supreme Court, Solomon v. State. According to Case Clips, "Solomon appeals his conviction for possession of marijuana as a Class B misdemeanor. Solomon raises one issue which we revise and restate as whether his conviction violates his right to liberty and pursuit of happiness under Article 1, Section 1, of the Indiana Constitution.

All students are invited to observe, bailiff, and/ or join a social networking reception with Indiana lawyers and judges after the final round. Contact rajmyers@iu.edu.
