INDIANA LAW ANNOTATED

November 9, 2020

Congratulations to Devin Dunkley and Carsten Parmenter, winners of this year's Sherman Minton Moot Court Competition, and special thanks to the judges and more than 200 volunteers who made the competition a success!

This is the last ILA of the semester. Good luck with exams, and have a safe and restful holiday.

Unless otherwise indicated, all events are being held via Zoom. Many of them require advance registration; consult listings for details. All times listed are Eastern Standard Time.

Monday

Rural Justice Initiative Information Session

In collaboration with the Indiana Supreme Court and the Indiana University Center for Rural Engagement, the Law School is offering the Rural Justice Initiative, a summer judicial externship for 1Ls with an interest in rural access-to-justice issues. Students will be hosted by participating Indiana trial court judges in rural counties (those with a population of 50,000 or fewer). The participating counties may include the counties that are partners of Indiana University's Center for Rural Engagement: Brown, Crawford, Daviess, Dubois, Greene, Lawrence, Martin, Monroe, Orange, Owen and Washington.

1Ls interested in learning more about this opportunity are invited to this information session with CSO and Prof. Madeira, chair of the Faculty Clerkship Committee.
