Announcements

Law student emergency relief program.

The Law School has some funding available to assist students in emergency situations who are in financial distress or facing financial hardship. One such resource is the Fromm Emergency Fund, named after the late Dean of Students Len Fromm and established through alumni generosity. This past spring, AccessLex Institute provided additional emergency funding to assist with hardship arising from the COVID-19 pandemic. Our emergency funds provide limited financial assistance to law students who are unable to meet immediate, essential expenses because of temporary hardship related to emergency situations.

Financial need and prior assistance are taken into account when determining awards. Typical expenses covered include costs related to serious illness in the immediate family; essential academic expenses and essential living expenses; medications or other health-related costs; or sudden, unexpected transportation expenses (e.g., emergency airfare). If you are experiencing financial hardship, you can contact Mr. Leopold at pleopold@indiana.edu to explain your circumstances and request an application for assistance.

Maurer/Sungkyunkwan dual JD/MBA fellowship opportunity

The Maurer School of Law's one-of-a-kind dual JD/MBA with Sungkyunkwan University in Seoul, South Korea is accepting applications for fellowship/scholarship opportunities, up to full tuition reimbursement. This program allows qualifying students to earn an MBA from a globally-ranked English speaking program in only one year. Applications are on Canvas and by invitation. Contact Professor Mark Need to request an invite or with further questions about the program. The deadline for applications is 5pm on Friday, January 22.

POP CLE lecture: "The Ethical Necessity of Providing Trauma Informed Legal Representation"

It's no surprise that many of the clients served by traditional legal service providers are survivors of violence. Statistics are clear that there is a direct link between poverty and violence. For those of us working civil cases, understanding the traumatic impact of violence is critical to the quality of our representation. If you are a legal service provider you should learn more about "trauma informed legal representation" and this seminar will introduce you to the concept. Come learn the facts about the manifestation of trauma in our clients, and how we can and should use that information to effectively litigate on their behalf. One hour of Indiana CLE available. Wednesday, January 27, noon-1 pm.

Basic mediation and restorative justice training (40 hours) via Zoom.

February 4, 6, 11, 13, 18, 20, 25, 27; March 4 and 6

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 40-hour training program for those interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, sources of conflict, and processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training should benefit anyone concerned with managing conflict and its resolution. The training also provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM's programs. The training will be led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners.

This winter, the training will take place via Zoom Thursday evenings, 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturdays, 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., over five weeks beginning February 4 and continuing through the March 6. Tuition is $300 ($275 if received by January 22). Applications should be received by January 29. Visit this page to learn more about the training and to register. Visit this page to apply for a scholarship. For questions, or more information, please e-mail training@cjamcenter.org.
