Callout for IJGLS New Global Scholar Series.

The Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies is seeking submissions from SJD and LLM students for its inaugural online New Global Scholar Series. All accepted pieces will be published on the IJGLS website, and the IJGLS Executive Board will provide all accepted authors with editing, formatting, and citation assistance. IJGLS will accept submissions on a rolling basis through March 31, 2021. Please visit ijgls.indiana.edu for more details and reach out to ijgls@indiana.edu with any questions. We look forward to reading your submissions!

VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance)—Continuing a long tradition for Law School students

Join VITA in assisting international students in completing federal and state individual income tax returns. VITA is a valuable community service and learning experience. No tax return preparation experience required. Register here for online training on Friday, February 12, 1:00-2:30 (required to pass the IRS's certification test).

VITA sessions will take place on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 9:30 pm for two months. Volunteers will assist taxpayers virtually (on Zoom with breakout rooms). If you have questions or want more information, come to our callout meeting Wednesday, February 10, at 7 pm. If you think you might be interested, please email tax accounting Clinical Professor Greg Geisler at geisler@iu.edu.

Seeking submissions for Diversity and Inclusion Student Newsletter.

The Diversity and Inclusion Student Newsletter resumes this week. Please email submissions to the bi-weekly newsletter to this year's diversity, equity, and inclusion fellow, Hussein Mohamed, at lawdei@indiana.edu.

Applications for various Law School fellowships open February 15

Applications for several paid, upper-level positions will open on CareerNet on Monday, February 15. Students interested in serving as a practice group advisor, career services office fellow, diversity and inclusion fellow, access to justice fellow, or development fellow are encouraged to review a recent email sent by Director Beck with position summaries and the application timeline, and to visit CareerNet on February 15 so see full descriptions and submit their applications by Friday, March 5. Applications for admissions fellows and dean's writing fellow (legal research and writing) positions operate on a separate timeline.

Join the Class of 2021 Graduation Committee

The Leonard D. Fromm Office for Student Affairs is seeking students from the Class of 2021 to join the Graduation Committee and help plan this year's graduation celebrations. Members of the committee will work with Director Beck to coordinate voting for specific awards and recognitions, select the student singer and speakers, and help ensure that graduation-related activities and events are meaningful to and well-communicated to their classmates. Most work will take place in March and April, and will be adaptive to COVID-related restrictions as they develop between now and then. To express your interest, please email Director Beck with your a brief statement of why you would like to serve on the committee. Applications received by Sunday, February 21 will be considered.

About ILA

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Sunday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Sunday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) to lawrooms@indiana.edu. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu).
