Tuesday

Second Amendment at SCOTUS: third time's a charm?

Noon - 1 p.m. in the Moot Court Room and on Zoom

The Federalist Society will explore the implications of the Supreme Court's decision this term to grant certiorari in New York State Rifle & Pistol Association v. Bruen, which will consider whether the State's denial of petitioners' applications for concealed-carry licenses for self-defense violated the Second Amendment. We will be hosting Clark Neily of the Cato Institute, who litigated the landmark D.C. v. Heller decision in 2008, as well as Professor Jody Madeira, whose scholarship and expertise focuses on the Second Amendment.

The first 69 to RSVP in advance will attend in person in the DeLaney Moot Court Room.

Walk with Prof. Christian Freitag for around 45 minutes.

Thursday

1L representative elections

Noon - 1 p.m. in the Moot Court Room

We're electing 1L representatives, passing out t-shirts, and getting to know other members.

Bystander training with IU's Substance Use Intervention Services

Noon - 1 p.m. in 213

Concerned about a friend's substance use, but not sure if you should be, or what to say? Need some tips about alcohol and substance use to be safer in your use as you transition from student to a professional role? Not sure if you know what to do if a friend has had too much to drink? Please join us for a confidential discussion on substance use.

Hosted by Indiana University Substance Use Intervention Services and the Leonard D. Fromm Office of Student Affairs

Family Law Society call-out meeting

CCD Speaker Series: Tim Hellwig on bicameralism and public responsiveness

Noon - 1 p.m. on Zoom

Does the organization of the assembly affect the capacity of governments to deliver policy that reflects the changing preferences of the public? Our theory's emphasis on the distribution of power between chambers further explains differences within bicameral systems. Study findings have implications for our understanding of how the paths and procedures by which policies are made matters for government responsiveness to public opinion.

Friday

Marshall Law: An Intellectual Property Workshop Celebrating the Career of Marshall Leaffer

9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. on Zoom

A group of distinguished scholars focusing primarily on copyright law and international intellectual property will present their latest work, and will reflect on Prof. Marshall Leaffer's influence in those fields. The workshop will feature two panel discussions in the morning, and two in the afternoon. RSVP to cipr@indiana.edu to receive the final schedule and Zoom connection information.

Greg Zipes: Justice Frank Murphy and *Korematsu

Noon - 1 p.m. in the Moot Court Room

Greg Zipes, adjunct professor at the NYU School of Professional Studies, has written a biography on Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy.

In Korematsu v. U.S., one of the most famous cases surrounding the Japanese internment camps in the U.S., Justice Murphy wrote a dissent declaring that the exclusion of Japanese "falls into the ugly abyss of racism."

Join APALSA, LLSA, and BLSA for this discussion of the case, and how those lessons can be applied today.

A Conversation with Senator Todd Young

3 - 4 p.m. in the Moot Court Room

The Federalist Society will be hosting Indiana U.S. Senator Todd Young for a lively conversation on the JUDGES Act.

COVID guidelines limit seating to 49 people.

Gong Show

8 - 9:30 p.m. at Bear's Place

The Gong Show is an amateur talent contest meant to be light-hearted and humorous. Each contestant will go before our panel of three judges. If any judge considers the act to be particularly bad, they can force it to stop by striking the gong. If the act survives without being gonged, the contestant will receive a score from each of the judges from 0 to 10 for a maximum score of 30 points. The contestant with the top score will win the grand prize!

Announcements

Calling students interested in MELSA

The Middle Eastern Law Students Association (MELSA) is for JD, LLM, and SJD students who are interested in gaining a greater understanding of the legal and cultural issues pertaining to the Middle East and Middle Eastern Americans. Our goal is to foster open dialogue in hopes of increasing awareness to the issues that the region is currently facing.

Please reach out to Serena Alway if you are interested in joining the association. Email salway@iu.edu or phone (574) 261-0159.

Pet Halloween costume contest: register by October 18

And to be clear, the Student Animal Legal Defense Fund (SALDF) and Public Interest Law Foundation (PILF) want you to register your pet right now for their October 28 pet costume contest on Zoom. Read about that in next week's ILA.
