Tax Policy Colloquium: Jeesoo Nam - Just Taxation of Crime: Should the Commission of Crime Change One’s Tax Liability?

9:50 - 11:50 on Zoom

The tax law treats criminals differently from non-criminals. Should it? Under the public policy doctrine, various tax deductions are disallowed if they are closely tied to criminal activity. Running a criminal enterprise is thus tax disadvantaged compared to running a non-criminal enterprise. Jeesoo Nam, Assistant Professor of Law and Philosophy at the University of Southern California, considers a variety of possible explanations.

Announcements
Registration for Spring Trial Competition 2023 is open!

The Sherman Minton Moot Court Board invites you to hone your oral advocacy skills by practicing witness examinations, opening and closing arguments, and getting evidence admitted. All three classes are invited to register. 1Ls will compete in their own Novice Division, while 2Ls and 3Ls will battle it out in the upper class bracket. This is a partnered event; you are free to select your teammate.

Register by February 18. Additional dates and information will be forthcoming. Direct questions to Ray Derebery (trderebe@iu.edu).

IU Wills and Advanced Directives Program training

The IU Office of the Vice President & General Counsel, in collaboration with Indiana Law students, offers will and end-of-life document preparation services at no charge to lower-income university employees, students, and parents. The program addresses the fact that more than 50 percent of American adults do not have a will and that as many as 70 percent have not designated a health care power of attorney. Interested 2L and 3L students are invited to join the mandatory training session on January 27 in order to volunteer during the Spring 2023 semester.

Register by January 23 to attend.

Deadline upcoming for exclusive JD+MBA program in Korea

The deadline for 1Ls and 2Ls to express interest in the Maurer/Sungkyunkwan International Fellows Program, through which our students earn an international MBA with their JD and spend a year in Seoul, South Korea (often on full scholarship) is Friday, January 20. Students who have questions and/or intend to apply to the program for fall 2023 must contact Prof. Mark Need at needm@iu.edu no later than the close of business on January 20.
Volunteers needed for Indiana High School Mock Trial Competition

The Indiana Bar Foundation is seeking volunteer judges for this year's Indiana High School Mock Trial Competition. To volunteer, complete and submit the judge volunteer form. Multiple dates and locations are available: February 18 (Evansville and South Bend); February 25 (Hammond and Indianapolis), and March 11-12 (Indianapolis). Morning, afternoon, and evening shifts are all available. If you need assistance, contact Joseph O'Connor at the Foundation (joconnor@inbarfoundation.org or 317-608-6504). Feel free to share with others who you think would make great volunteers. We are grateful for the opportunity to welcome new volunteers!
