This week in the Law School

Like many readers, ILA will take a break next week. Safe and happy travels, everyone. But before we enjoy Spring Break, we’ve got the Dean's Town Hall, an Indiana Bar information session ... and tickets going on sale for the 35th annual Rapheal M. Prevot, Jr. Barristers' Ball. Read on.

Monday

Litigating welfare rights
Noon - 1 p.m. in 121 and on Zoom

The American Constitution Society hosts professor Andrew Hammond and Carrie Chapman, senior director of litigation and advocacy at Legal Council for Health Justice, for this discussion. Food will be provided — RSVP by 5 p.m., March 5 so we know how much food to provide.

RSVP for in person or register for Zoom

Indiana Bar exam information session
Noon - 1 p.m. in the DeLaney Moot Court Room

Learn about the Indiana Bar exam application and character and fitness from the staff of the Indiana Bar Admissions Office. This is essential for 3L Indiana applicants and useful for 2L students who think they will take the Indiana Bar. After the presentation there will be time for questions. Handouts will be made available to students unable to attend. Bring your lunch.

OUTlaw meeting
Noon - 1 p.m. in 214

OUTlaw is hosting a meeting of members to share information about its upcoming elections. Grab some doughnuts, learn about available positions, and socialize!

Conversation with Steve Shermer
6 - 7 p.m. in 120

Steve Shermer is a senior attorney in the DOJ's Environmental Enforcement Division. He will discuss his career with interested students. Steve won the prestigious Arthur S. Flemming Award in 2020 and has particular experience with the Clean Air Act and process safety management cases. Sponsored by the Environmental Law Society.
Tuesday

Coffee and cookies with Hall Render
9:45 - 10:45 a.m. in 216

Hall Render Killian Heath & Lyman wants to meet students over coffee and cookies to share information about the firm.

NLG abolitionist read-in
4 - 6 p.m. in the Student Lounge

Law students, faculty, and staff curious about prison abolition, join the National Lawyers Guild for an abolitionist read-in — part of its Week Against Mass Incarceration. Books will be available. NLG welcomes those who want to read independently as well as those looking for conversation. This is an opportunity to foster a sense of community through reading, discussing, and learning about the prison abolitionist movement.

Wednesday

Dean's Town Hall
Noon - 1 p.m. in the DeLaney Moot Court Room

Law students, faculty, and staff are invited to this semester’s Town Hall meeting to learn more about the strategic initiatives moving the Law School forward. The Town Hall will be in its usual format, with Dean Christiana Ochoa providing a short address followed by a question-and-answer period.
Pizza will be provided — RSVP by noon, March 6.

RSVP

Parenting in the carceral state
4:30 - 5:30 p.m. in the Faculty Conference Room

Join the Incarcerated Individuals Legal Assistance Project, IDOC Watch, and the National Lawyers Guild to learn from Queen Lewis, Evansville Director of FOCUS Initiatives LTD, a grassroots abolitionist reentry program. She will speak on her experience as a mother of incarcerated children and her work organizing with FOCUS Families, an organization of families/loved ones of incarcerated people. Moderated by Jauston Huerta, Indianapolis Director for FOCUS. This event is part of the NLG’s Week Against Mass Incarceration.

PAD Initiation
6 p.m. on Zoom

Phi Alpha Delta Initiation is required for new members. If you are interested in joining PAD to take advantage of all member resources, including the Outline Bank, please e-mail padadams@iu.edu.

Register for Zoom

Thursday

CACR Speaker Series: Aunshul Rege on "Social engineering in research, education, and application"
Noon - 1 p.m. in 124

Aunshul Rege, associate professor and director of the Cybersecurity in Application, Research, and Education Lab at Temple University. Dr. Rege’s research focii include critical infrastructure and cybersecurity, ransomware, cyberadversarial decision-making and adaptation, and cybersecurity education. Lunch and CACR swag will be provided.

RSVP

CCD Speak Series: Alessandro Ferrari

Noon - 1:05 p.m. in the Henderson House and on Zoom

Dr. Alessandro Ferrari, a visiting scholar at IU's Center for Religion & the Human, will present "The right to religious freedom in the European exception: The end of a constitutional model?"

[Register for Zoom]

Maurer clinics and practica call out

Noon - 1 p.m. in the DeLaney Moot Court Room

Join faculty directors and instructors of various clinics and practica to learn more about what participation in these experiential courses can offer you. Represented experiences will be:

- Child Representation Practicum
- Conservation Law Clinic
- Cybersecurity Clinic
- Elmore Entrepreneurship Clinic
- Habeas Litigation Practicum
• Intellectual Property Law Clinic
• Student Legal Services Externship
• The Reentry Clinic
• Viola J. Taliaferro Family and Children Mediation Clinic

Bring your own lunch.

Friday

No events.

Announcements

Tickets on sale March 6: 35th Annual Rapheal M. Prevot, Jr. Barristers' Ball

The Black Law Students Association will host the 35th Annual Rapheal M. Prevot, Jr. Barristers' Ball on Saturday, April 1, 6:30 – 11 p.m. at The Woolery Mill. Tickets are on sale March 6 - March 22, starting at $80 per person and increasing over the sales window. Don't delay! Visit the official website for the latest information and to purchase. E-mail questions to eventlaw@indiana.edu.

2023 graduates: Report your cumulative pro bono hours by April 1

You will be required to report your cumulative pro bono hours by April 1 to be recognized at graduation. The Law School will send out a Qualtrics form when we get closer to April. Check the Access to Justice Program website for more information.

SBA food drive this week

The Student Bar Association is hosting a canned food drive for the Hoosier Hills Food Bank March 6 - 10. We will place four bins in the lobby — one each for 1Ls, 2Ls, 3Ls, and graduate programs students. Classes will be competing to see who brings the most canned goods.

---

Faculty news

Indiana Law in the Media

Follow our Faculty in the Media.

---

About ILA

Indiana Law Annotated is published Sundays during the school year with events and announcements for the coming week.

Send announcements to ila@indiana.edu. And use our web tool to request an event: request a room, publicity, or support, and give other details about your request. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed.

Concise submissions should be sent by noon of the Thursday before publication. Entries may be edited for consistent presentation.