Correction and additions for the March 20 ILA

Singing for Summer Salaries is a hybrid event, held at the Switchyard Brewery and on Zoom. ISA's LLM/JD graduate panel has moved to Thursday and IP Theory's meeting has moved to Friday. And the panel, "Black Women in the Law," has been added on Wednesday. Finally, see Announcements for an opportunity for 1Ls.

Please submit your events by noon on the Thursday before the week of your event.

Wednesday

Leading the Way: Black Women in the Law
6 - 7 p.m. on Zoom
The webinar will focus on the importance of Black women attorneys and judges within the profession, address challenges Black women face in the profession, and how to overcome those challenges.

Announcement

1Ls needed to serve as witnesses, April 3-7

Professor Price is seeking 1L volunteers to serve as witnesses during the week of April 3-7 in a deposition exercise for upper-class students who are taking Pre-Trial Litigation. The Pre-Trial Litigation students will take a 30-minute deposition in a non-compete case. Actual, experienced attorneys will defend the deposition (making objections etc.) and feedback will be provided immediately following the deposition. Witnesses are welcome to stay for the feedback portion if they want. The exercise simulates real litigation work and offers a valuable learning opportunity for both the deposition taker as well as the witnesses. Find more information and sign up for a time slot on CareerNet under Events > Witness Volunteers.
