CONTRIBUTORS OF LEADING ARTICLES

Conrad Wolf was graduated from Indiana Central Normal College with the degree of A. B. in 1886. He was graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1890. He is engaged in the general practice of the law at Kokomo as senior partner in the firm of Wolf and Barnes.

Harry O. Chamberlin was appointed judge of the Circuit Court of Marion County in 1920, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Louis B. Ewbank, who resigned to accept appointment to the Supreme Court of Indiana. Judge Chamberlin, by election since 1920, has continued as judge of the Circuit Court in Marion County. For fifteen years previous to his judicial service, Judge Chamberlin was engaged in the general practice of the law in Indianapolis in partnership with Charles O. Roemler.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Members of the Indiana State Bar Association:

The officers of the Indiana State Bar Association are looking forward to a very successful meeting at French Lick, July 7th and 8th. Indications point to a good attendance and a program has been arranged that will prove satisfactory—not too much work and much instructive entertainment.

The annual address will be by Albert C. Ritchie, Governor of Maryland. Governor Ritchie is one of the foremost lawyers of his time and an entertaining speaker. He will address the Association on the morning of the eighth.

The principal speaker at the annual dinner on the evening of the seventh will be L. D. Greene of the Louisville bar, delightful and instructive speaker.

A reunion of the surviving founders of the Association will be held, the first in the Association's history.

Special effort is being made to entertain the lady guests of the members. A large reception committee has been appointed, consisting of wives of members from different parts of the state, who will make great effort to see that acquaintances are made and that everybody is made comfortable and happy. A large attendance of ladies is expected.

WILLIAM A. PICKENS,
President, The Indiana State Bar Association.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER

To the Members of the Indiana State Bar Association:

The thirty-first annual meeting will be held July 7 and 8 at French Lick Springs Hotel.

The first session will be at 2:00 p. m. Thursday, July 7th, and the annual banquet at 6:30 p. m. on the same day. There will be a morning and afternoon session on Friday, July 8th. The entertainment committees have plans that provide for a golf tournament and a motor trip for Saturday, July 9th.

The wives and families of members of the Indiana State Bar Association and their friends are welcome at all sessions of the Association. Special entertainment will be provided during the business sessions for the women.

All the sessions will be informal.

There is a regular train from Indianapolis to French Lick over the Pennsylvania lines which leaves Indianapolis at 12:30 noon every day. It reaches French Lick at 4:00 p. m. Our members are advised not to take this train if they can come at an earlier time since it will cause them to miss the afternoon session on the first day of the convention. There is an interurban bus of the Blue Goose Line which leaves Indianapolis daily at 7:00 a. m. and reaches French Lick at noon. The officers of the State Bar Association have arranged to secure a special bus for the accommodation of our members which will leave Indianapolis at 9:00 a. m., Thursday, July 7th, and will reach French Lick about noon. These members taking this bus will reach French Lick in time for the afternoon session on the first day of the meeting. The Monon Railway is the only railroad that serves French Lick, although trains from other lines come into French Lick over the Monon tracks. Members of the Association from parts of the State that are not conveniently served by Indianapolis will be able to make their independent arrangements for reaching French Lick at noon on Thursday, July 7th. It does not seem practicable to make detailed arrangements where the needs of our members are so varied and the convenient times for their reaching the meeting may differ.

The hotel rates are American plan, and are the lowest ever given any organization by this wonderful resort. We have reserved enough rooms to take care of everyone so that it is not necessary to make your personal reservation ahead of the meeting.

The speakers include the following: Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland; Hon. L. V. Green, Louisville, Ky.; Hon.

Wm. Alfred Hough, Judge Supreme Court of Indiana; Nathan Levey, winner 1927 contest conducted by the Indiana State Bar Association on the "Constitution"; Hon. John R. Browne, Marion; Hon. William A. Pickens, President, The Indiana State Bar Association.

JOEL A. BAKER,

Secretary, The Indiana State Bar Association.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

To the Members of the Indiana State Bar Association:

The membership work in this Association has been handicapped this spring by reason of the illness of the chairman of the Membership Committee. It, therefore, devolves upon each member to help in some degree to make up for the time which has been lost. Every lawyer of good moral character in Indiana, should be a member of the Indiana State Bar Association. A few of the outstanding reasons are as follows:

First: The Journal alone is worth the $5.00 which the membership costs. It contains many items of intense interest to Indiana lawyers particularly, and the reviews of the cases decided by the Supreme and Appellate Courts are alone of sufficient value to demand a careful reading by every lawyer in the practice.

Second: Membership in the State Bar Association promotes acquaintanceship, a great asset to every lawyer. It creates good fellowship, builds good will—an essential asset in every line of endeavor.

Third: The mere fact of membership lends prestige to the lawyer, which thereby develops new business connections and inversely every member of the Association will wonder why some lawyer in his neighboring city is not a member.

Fourth: Men in almost every line of endeavor are organized. The lawyers have too long neglected to take advantage of the power of organization.

Fifth: The Indiana lawyer more than any other person, is vitally interested in Indiana legislation and it is only through organization that forward steps may be taken to accomplish the legislation which all lawyers know is necessary. Attention should be called at this time to the great accomplishments of the Association in procuring needful legislation during the past session of the Legislature. The attention of members is called to this work which is described in the March and April numbers of the Law Journal.

Sixth: In this commercial age, there is danger that the lawyer will lose sight of his high calling and the place which he can and should hold in his community; of the general attitude which the Bar should take towards public affairs. A membership in the Indiana State Bar Association will help him keep a proper prospective and to realize his ideals.

Will not every member assist in getting at least one other member for the Association? As our membership is increasing, the worth of the membership correspondingly increases. Get your neighboring lawyer to fill out the application blank below, and forward it to Henry B. Walker, chairman Membership Committee, Old National Bank Building, Evansville, Ind.

HENRY B. WALKER,
Chairman, Membership Committee,
The Indiana State Bar Association.
