ANNOUNCEMENTS

Interesting Questions Pending in Upper Courts

President Loudon L. Bomberger suggests that it would be of interest and value to the profession if the Journal would carry a statement of cases pending in the Supreme and Appellate Courts involving law questions of general interest. If lawyers appealing cases involving such questions will forward to the Editor copies of their briefs in such cases, a new section will be added to the Journal giving the profession this information as early as possible after the questions are presented.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF JUDICIAL COUNCIL

The Second Annual Report of the Indiana Judicial Council will be ready for distribution sometime early in December. The report this year is devoted almost entirely to a statistical report of the work of the trial courts in Indiana for the past three years and the cost of operation of the courts during that time.

Five thousand copies of the report are being printed and the report will be distributed, as was the first report, through the county clerks. A supply will be sent to each clerk sufficient to provide a copy for each lawyer in the county.

BERNARD C. GAVIT,
Secretary.

LOCAL BAR ASSOCIATIONS

Hon. Abram Simmons, President of the Wells County Bar Association, on October 19, 1937, delivered an interesting and instructive address before a joint meeting of the Foltz Literary Club and the Bay View Club of Wells County. The address traced historically from the Constitutional Convention to the present time, the establishment, growth and jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States. Particular emphasis was placed upon the relation of the court to the legislative and the executive branches of the government.

The Davies County Bar Association reports that their regular quarterly meetings are well attended and are a source of profit and pleasure to the members. The following sentences reflect the spirit of the report. "We derive much pleasure and benefit from our organization. We are now in our tenth year, and are firm believers that each county ought to have such an organization."

At the November 16, 1937, meeting, all members of the bar of Davies County except three were present. One of these, Hon. Charles G. Gardiner, the first president of the association, was seriously ill.
