BAR ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING, FRENCH LICK, SEPTEMBER 16 AND 17.

The Annual Meeting of the State Bar Association, to be held at French Lick, Indiana, September 16 and 17, 1938, will be one of unusual interest.

Among the speakers expected are:

(1) J. Armitage Ewing, K. C., Montreal, Canada, who will speak on "Practice and Procedure in Quebec".

(2) Arthur T. Vanderbilt, President of the American Bar Association.

(3) Fred E. Inbau of Northwestern University, who will speak on "Crime Detection", and will demonstrate the use of a "lie-detector".

(4) Carl Wilde of Indianapolis, who will speak on "The National Labor Relations Act".

(5) An undisclosed speaker of national reputation who President Bomberger hinted is "probably a United States Senator".

The Saturday morning session will be devoted largely to a discussion of the Federal Rules and Proposed New Appellate Rules in Indiana.

SIXTH DISTRICT BAR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The lawyers of the Sixth District will hold their annual meeting at Turkey Run on Saturday, June 25, 1938. There will be sessions both in the forenoon and in the afternoon with luncheon at 12:30.

The officers and Board of Managers of the State Bar Association will be present, as President Bomberger has called a meeting of the Board for that time and place.

SECRETARY-TREASURER CHANGE OF ADDRESS

On June first Mr. Thomas C. Batchelor, Secretary-Treasurer of the Indiana State Bar Association changed his address. He has become associated with the law firm of Pickens, Gause and Pickens, 1300 Fletcher Trust Building.

All future communications should be addressed to him at that address instead of at Union Title Building.
