

12-1935

Local Bar Associations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1935) "Local Bar Associations," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 11 : Iss. 2 , Article 11.

Available at: <https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol11/iss2/11>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized editor of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact rvaughan@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

LOCAL BAR ASSOCIATIONS

The Delaware County Bar Association held a dinner meeting on November 7 in Muncie at which they were hosts to many lawyers from neighboring counties. About 100 lawyers attended. Judge Walter E. Treanor spoke on "The Tools of the Lawyer."

The St. Joseph County Bar Association has elected the following officers for the next year: Vitus G. Jones, South Bend, President; Charles W. Bingham, Mishawaka, Vice-President; Albert T. Frantz, South Bend, Secretary-Treasurer; and M. Edward Doran, South Bend, Board of Governors.

Congressman William T. Schulte of the First Indiana District spoke at the Gary Bar Association meeting, October 24.

Mr. Leonard Keeler, Professor of Law at Northwestern University and inventor of the "lie-detector," addressed the Allen County Bar Association on October 30. His subject was "Scientific Crime Detection with Particular Emphasis on the Lie-detector." The officers of the Allen County Bar for the coming year will be C. Byron Hayes, President; Howard L. Townsend, First Vice-President; Dan C. Flanagan, Second Vice-President; Harold R. McClain, Secretary; Lake E. Rariden, Treasurer; Wm. J. Vesey, and Otto E. Grant, Trustees.

Former Senator Arthur R. Robinson was the principal speaker at the Indianapolis Bar Association, November 6. The officers of the Indianapolis Bar Association for next year will be Hubert Hickam, President; Russell Willson, First Vice-President; Taylor Groninger, Second Vice-President; William C. Kern, Secretary; Harvey Grabill, Treasurer; John A. Royse and Herman W. Kothe, members of the Executive Committee; and Maurice E. Tennant, William S. McMaster, Gideon W. Blain and G. R. Redding, members of the Committee on Admissions.

The Terre Haute Bar Association at its smoker in Terre Haute, November 21, discussed "Changes in the Criminal Law." Discussion was a round table discussion by members of the Association.

The DeKalb County Bar Association entertained their wives at a dinner at the Pokagon State Park on September 13. Judge Clyde C. Carlin of Angola was the principal speaker. Short addresses were also made by Judge A. C. Wood, Henry Willis and Howard W. Mountz.

The officers of the Vermillion County Bar Association for the coming year will be William C. Wait of Newport, President; Mark W. Lyday of Clinton, Vice-President; and Maynard C. Wiggins of Newport, Secretary and Treasurer.

Judge John Cody of Superior Court No. 1 was the principal speaker at the Whiting Bar Association meeting September 13.

Approximately fifty lawyers attended the Elkhart County Bar Association at Goshen on November 8. Dean Bernard C. Gavit spoke on "Recent Developments in the Law of Jurisdiction of Courts."

T. J. Loudon, President of the Monroe County Bar Association entertained the members at his home on November 1. "Professional Conduct" was the subject of the discussion. Judge Walter E. Treanor of the Supreme Court and Robert G. Miller of the local bar were the principal speakers.

On November 2 the Tippecanoe County Bar Association elected the following officers for next year: Charles H. Robertson, President; Vernon E. St. John, Vice-President; and Ralph H. Schaupp, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Wells County Bar Association held a dinner meeting on November 12 in honor of Fred A. Wiecking, recently appointed Judge of the Appellate Court. Abram Simmons, President of the Association, presided and former Judge W. H. Eichhorn made the principal address.

The Indiana Association of Women Lawyers met at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis on November 16. The Honorable Philip Lutz, Jr., Attorney General of Indiana, was the speaker. His subject was "Relationship of the Attorney General to the Lawyer." The officers of the club are Miss Jessie Levy, President, Miss Tella C. Haines, First Vice-President; Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ramier, Second Vice-President; Miss Marylou Patterson, Recording Secretary; Miss Esther M. Schmidt, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Miami County Bar Association at their dinner meeting on October 27 elected Albert H. Cole, President, L. O. Arnold, Vice-President and Charles Rich, Secretary-Treasurer.

Richard T. James, the youngest practicing attorney in Jay County, was elected President of the Jay County Bar Association on October 12. Other officers of the Association are A. C. Ford, Vice-President; Ernst E. Chenoweth, Secretary; Byron G. Jenkins, Treasurer.

Carl Wilde, Referee in Bankruptcy, Indianapolis, was the guest speaker at the Howard County Bar Association on October 15. His subject was "Lawyers on the Stage of History."

The Honorable Ralph N. Smith, late judge of the Appellate Court of Indiana left his library of approximately 1,000 volumes to Porter County as a start for a new law library in the court house at Valparaiso. The Porter County Library was destroyed by fire last December.

The Madison County Bar Association held a dinner meeting at the Anderson Country Club October 3. The principal address was on taxation problems and was made by Mr. Clarence Jackson, Chairman of the Indiana Gross Income Tax Administration.
