MARCH MEETING OF BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Board of Managers of the Indiana State Bar Association held its March meeting at Muncie, Indiana, Friday, March 28, 1930 in connection with the Eighth district Bar Association meeting. President James M. Ogden presided at the meeting. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Board of Managers in connection with the sixth district meeting at Richmond on May 23rd or 24th.

A tentative program was presented for the annual meeting of the association which will be held at Bloomington on July 10 and 11. Included in this program will be the annual address of B. W. Jones of Wisconsin, judge, author and professor, as well as other eminent lawyers.

The matter concerning the appointment of federal judges also was discussed and a special committee appointed with authority to act in regard to the annual by-laws and the constitution itself, if necessary.

Those present at the meeting were Attorney-General James M. Ogden, president; W. W. Miller, vice-president; H. V. Walker, of Evansville, F. N. Richman, of Columbus, J. M. Fitzgerald, of Terre Haute, W. A. Yarling, of Shelbyville, Judge L. A. Nichols, of Winchester, Milo Feightner, of Huntington, members of the Board of Managers; Prof. W. E. Treanor, editor of the Law Journal; Samuel C. Garrison, executive-secretary of the committee on American citizenship; and James Van Osdol, of Anderson.

The Board of Managers voted favorably upon ninety-five new members.

STATE ORATORICAL AND ESSAY CONTESTS

The following account of the work of the Committee on American Citizenship in connection with the oratorical and essay contests has been furnished by Samuel E. Garrison, Executive Secretary of the committee:

The state high school oratorical contest, sponsored by the Indiana State Bar Association, was held Friday evening in the Bedford High School auditorium with relatives and friends of the contestants and numerous others in attendance.

Attorney General James M. Ogden, president of the Indiana State Bar Association, was chairman of the meeting and awarded the oratory prizes at the conclusion of the contest. He was introduced at the opening of the meeting by Isaac Carter, chairman of the committee on American Citizenship of the Bar Association.

Six contestants who had weathered local, county, district and zone contests were entered and all presented splendid orations and at their conclusion each contestant was given a subject and requested to make a brief impromptu speech thereon. Exceptional talent was exhibited in this feature.

At the close of the contest the following rating was made by the judges, Judge Charles F. Remy, of the Indiana Appellate Court, Indianapolis; Professor Milo J. Bowman, of Indiana University, Bloomington, and Rev. Clyde S. Black, pastor of the Bedford First Methodist Episcopal Church.

First—Sidney Hyman, Emerson High School, Gary, $400.

Second—Miss Kathleen Flinn, Wiley High School, Terre Haute, $125.

Third—George Van Dyke, Union City High School, $100.

Fourth—Max Baer, Central Senior High School, South Bend, $75.

Fifth—Miss Jane Howard, Booneville High School, $50.

Sixth—Miss Burhl Conner, Columbus High School, $25.

The judges of the state championship essay contest were Hon. John P. Edmison, Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis; Hon. Albert Stump, Indianapolis, and Professor Paul L. Haworth, Butler University, Indianapolis. They announced the following selections at the close of the oratorical contest and the awards in the essay contest were made by Roy R. Roudebush, assistant state superintendent of public instruction:

First—Margaret Massoth, Kokomo High School, $300.

Second—Kathryn Messner, Madison Township High School, Salamonia, $125.

Third—Max Peterson, Montpelier High School, $100.

Fourth—Libia Marchetti, Bedford High School, $75.

Fifth—Virgil Jullerat, Washington Center High School, Columbia City, $50.

Sixth—Virginia Lemon, Madison High School, $25.

In addition to the cash awards made possible through the generosity of Frank C. Ball, of Muncie, first place winners in both the oratorical and essay contests were presented with gold medals and were awarded titles as state champions.
