

12-1932

News of Bench and Bar

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1932) "News of Bench and Bar," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 8: Iss. 3, Article 14.

Available at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol8/iss3/14>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

NEWS OF BENCH AND BAR

Ora L. Wildermuth, president and founder of the Gary Bar Association, was elected president of the Lake County Bar Association, which hereafter will be known as the First District-Lake County Bar Association, according to announced reorganization. Other officers include High E. Carroll of East Chicago, vice-president, and Emil Bower of Hammond, treasurer. Directors of the new association are Albert H. Gavit and Robert M. Davis, Gary; Richard P. Tinkham and Cary A. Hueber of Hammond; Henry Peterson and Maurice E. Crites, East Chicago; Walter Smith, Whiting, and at-large Joe Brown, Crown Point and Alfred Highland, Hammond.

Judge James A. Cox of Crothersville was reelected as President of the Jackson County Bar Association at the annual meeting of the association Tuesday, October 11, 1932, at the court room in Brownstown. Harold Soisman was elected secretary and Harold Murphy, treasurer.

The Hendricks County Bar Association conducted memorial services in the Supreme court room in the Statehouse Tuesday, October 20, 1932, for Solon A. Enloe, former judge of the Appellate Court of Indiana who died Saturday, October 17, 1932.

Fifty members of the Madison County Bar Association held their annual meeting at the Anderson Country Club Thursday, October 7, 1932, with a golf tournament and chicken dinner.

The Marion County Bar Association held its annual dinner Wednesday night, October 5, 1932, in the Columbia Club at Indianapolis. Judges of the Supreme and Appellate courts and members of neighboring county bars were guests.

Members of the Dearborn County Bar Association held their Autumn meeting at the Dearborn Country Club Monday, October 5, 1932.

Judge James H. Wilkerson, of the United States district court at Chicago, delivered the principal address at a meeting of the Fifth District Bar Association held at Peru Friday, September 30, 1932. The meeting was attended by several members of the Supreme and Appellate courts and a number of circuit court jurists. Attorney Lloyd McClure of Kokomo was elected president of the association; Judge Brenton A. DeVol of Frankfort, vice-president; Judge James J. Moran of Portland, second vice-president; Frank Russell of Tipton, secretary, and James Emswiler of Hartford City, treasurer.

Attorney William C. Barnard, oldest member of the Henry County Bar Association, was honored by that association on the occasion of his eightieth birthday anniversary at a dinner held at Newcastle, Indiana, October 24, 1932. Floyd Newby of Knightstown, president of the Association, presided at the affair.

Judge L. A. Guthrie of the Delaware County Bar Association delivered an address on Lincoln at the noon luncheon of the Bar Association held in the Y. M. C. A. in Muncie Friday, October 21, 1932.

Judge Meade Vestal gave the principal address at the quarterly dinner of the Hamilton County Bar Association held at the Wright Cafeteria in Noblesville Tuesday, October 4, 1932.