

1-1933

News of Bench and Bar

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1933) "News of Bench and Bar," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 8: Iss. 4, Article 11.

Available at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol8/iss4/11>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

NEWS OF BENCH AND BAR

John T. Beasley, prominent Terre Haute attorney, was the principal speaker at the Vermillion County Bar Association's annual dinner held at the Clinton Hotel, Clinton, Indiana, Saturday, November 26. About fifty attorneys from Vermillion, Parke and Vigo counties were present at the meeting.

Ross Lockridge, of the extension division of Indiana University, spoke on the life history and character of George Washington at the annual banquet of the Muncie Bar Association at the Y. M. C. A., November 18. Everett Warner, president of the bar association, presided at the meeting.

Annual election of officers of the Allen County Bar Association took place at the first dinner-meeting of the association at the Chamber of Commerce in Fort Wayne, Wednesday evening, November 30. John Morris was elected president, succeeding former Judge Sol A. Wood. Clyde W. Reed, first vice-president; Guy Colerick, second vice-president; William G. Keane, secretary; Robert Y. Keegan, treasurer. Trustees for the year are Creighton H. Williams and Judge Wood.

Members of the Owen County Bar Association were hosts at an informal dinner held at the Cooper's Cafe in Spencer, Indiana, Friday, November 25, in honor of Judge Herbert Rundell, Judge-elect Donald Rogers and Prosecuting Attorney Leroy Baker.

W. C. Duncan was reelected as president of the Bartholomew County Bar Association Saturday, November 27, at the annual election of officers held in the court room at Columbus, Indiana. Charles S. Baker was elected as vice-president and Lew Sharpnack was elected secretary.

John Marshall discussed the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution in an address before members of the Howard County Bar Association Tuesday, November 15.

Walter R. Arnold, of South Bend, was elected president of the St. Joseph County Bar Association to succeed Orlo R. Deaho, former judge of Superior Court No. 2. Lewis W. Hammond was elected vice-president, D. D. Nemeth was reelected secretary and treasurer, and Charles W. Bingham, of Mishawaka, was elected to the board of governors.

Mayor Joseph W. Kimmell was elected president of the Knox County Bar Association to succeed Thomas B. Coulter. Other officers elected are: J. A. Jones, vice-president; Elmer Marchino, secretary; Ralph Alsop, treasurer; H. R. Lewis, marshal, and John Ramsey, sergeant-at-arms.

Judge James J. Moran, of Portland, former state appellate court judge, addressed the members and guests of the Delaware County Bar Association at their regular bi-weekly meeting Friday noon, December 2, in the Y. M. C. A. at Muncie.

Members of the Orange County Bar Association had a noonday luncheon Tuesday, November 22, 1932, at the Mineral Springs Hotel in Paoli, Indiana.

Wilmer T. Fox, of Jeffersonville, gave the principal address at a meeting of the Indianapolis Bar Association held at the Columbia Club Wednesday evening, December 7, 1932. Homer Elliott, former United States District Attorney, was elected president for the coming year. Other officers elected were Frank C. Dailey, first vice-president; Samuel D. Miller, second vice-president; Donald W. Morris, treasurer; Carl Wilde and Bernard Korbly, members of the executive committee, and B. Howard Caughran, Kute F. Pantzer and Austin V. Clifford, members of the committee on admissions.