

6-1933

Obituaries

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

 Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1933) "Obituaries," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 8: Iss. 9, Article 16.
Available at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol8/iss9/16>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

OBITUARIES

James W. Ogdon, for twelve years judge of the 49th judicial circuit, comprising Daviess and Martin counties, died Saturday, April 22, at his home in Washington. Mr. Ogdon was eighty-six years old. He was born in Kentucky and came to Washington as a young attorney and became one of Daviess county's leading attorneys.

James Adams Hibberd, age 77, died at his home in South Bend, Friday, May 5th. He was graduated in 1883 from the Union College of Law in Chicago and began his practice of the law in the office of Arnold & Creed.

Charles Herman Brower, prominent Wabash attorney, died Sunday, April 23rd, in Denver, where he has been ill for the past five months.

William M. Alsop, prominent Vincennes attorney and bank official, died Sunday, April 30th. He had been ill for a short time.

Claud G. Malott, Bloomington attorney, died Tuesday, April 18th. He graduated from Indiana University in 1895 and was a member of the Monroe County Bar Association.

Oscar Ratts, of Paoli, Indiana, former member of the Indiana Public Service Commission, legislator, lawyer and prominent Republican leader in Orange County, died Tuesday, April 18th. He studied law in the Indiana Law School in Indianapolis.

James T. Cutler died suddenly Monday night, April 17th, at his home in Mt. Auburn. He served as president of the Vanderburgh County Bar Association in 1932. After his graduation from DePauw University in 1894, he worked in the law office of James T. Walker and two years later entered private practice, and at one time was county attorney.