

12-1931

Obituaries

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

 Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1931) "Obituaries," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 7: Iss. 3, Article 12.
Available at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol7/iss3/12>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

OBITUARIES

Lawrence D. Carey, age 54, a prominent attorney of Monticello for about thirty years died at his home in Monticello Wednesday, November 4th. Mr. Carey was attorney of White county at the time of his death.

Attorney Leander D. Boyd, age 78, oldest member and Dean of the Carroll County Bar, died at his home in Delphi Saturday, October 31. Mr. Boyd began the practice of law in Delphi in 1881, and continued until the time of his death.

Jesse R. Coleman, age 65, prominent Tipton attorney and for forty-one years a member of the Tipton County, bar died at his home in Tipton Wednesday, October 28, 1931.

Albert C. Stevens, age 52, prosecuting attorney for Rush county, died Wednesday, October 28, 1931, at Rushville. Mr. Stevens attended State Normal at Terre Haute, Valparaiso University, and Indiana University Law School.

Fred R. Owens, age 56, a leading attorney of Franklin and Central Indiana for many years, died at his home in Franklin, Friday, October 23, 1931. Mr. Owens was a graduate of Franklin college and Indiana Law School. He was a charter member of the Franklin Rotary Club and active in the affairs of the Phi Delta Theta alumni club.

Mark P. Turner, age 68, former general attorney of the Central Union Telephone Company, died Thursday, November 5th at his home in Indianapolis. Mr. Turner graduated from the Cincinnati, Ohio, Law School and was engaged in the practice of law in Newcastle and Anderson before going to Indianapolis.