ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMITTEE ON 1932 INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF COMPARATIVE LAW

To Any Member of Indiana State Bar Association:

I have been asked to appoint a committee of three Indiana lawyers to participate in arrangements for and if possible attend the International Congress of Comparative Law to be held at the Hague August 2-6, 1932. Indiana should be represented, if possible. Please let me know if you intend to be in Europe at that time.

FRANK N. RICHMAN, President.

INDIANA REPORTS

Following the demand of the time for more compactness and, therefore, reduction in size of books, the office of the reporter of the Supreme and Appellate Courts has decided to print the Indiana Reports on a lighter weight though a better grade of paper beginning with the next volume of the Appellate Court Reports. The law, of course, governs the number of pages to the book so that the Indiana reports in the past years have run larger proportionately than other law books. In cities where office space is high priced and at a premium, the size of books makes considerable difference. The new book will run from three-quarters to an inch less in thickness, will be almost twelve ounces less in weight on the average, and, with the thinner paper, will be much more flexible. All the copy for the 92nd Appellate is with the printer so that before many weeks the book will be ready for distribution.
