

2-1932

News of Bench and Bar

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1932) "News of Bench and Bar," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 7: Iss. 5, Article 9.
Available at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol7/iss5/9>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

NEWS OF BENCH AND BAR

Former Judge Dan M. Link, of Chicago, delivered an address on Illinois Court Procedure at a banquet of the Allen County Bar Association at the Fort Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday evening, December 15.

Resolutions in memoriam for the late Willis Rhodes, a member of the DeKalb County Bar and Auburn banker, who died last June 21, were adopted by the DeKalb County Bar Association.

Orlo R. Deahl, former judge of the Superior Court No. 2 of South Bend, was elected president of the St. Joseph County Bar Association at the annual election meeting of the association December 4, 1931. Walter R. Arnold was elected vice-president and D. D. Nemeth was reelected as secretary-treasurer.

The members of the Marshall County Bar Association held their annual dinner meeting Saturday evening, December 5, at the Grand Hotel in Plymouth. A business meeting was held at the close of the banquet. The officers of the organization are: President, L. M. Lauer; secretary-treasurer, Alvin F. Marsh.

At the annual business meeting of the Howard County Bar Association, held Tuesday, December 8, 1931, Don P. Strode was elected president; John Marshall was elected vice-president, and Gerald Rybold secretary-treasurer.

Attorney Lester F. Murphy was elected president of the Twin City Bar Association at the annual election of the association held at the city court room, Hammond, December 5, 1931. Max Goldsmith was elected vice-president, W. B. Van Horn Jr., treasurer, and Al Zivich, secretary.

William Little, junior member of the law firm of Neal & Little, was special guest at a dinner given by the Hamilton County Bar Association at the Wright Cafeteria in Noblesville, Monday, December 21. Mr. Little is leaving Noblesville for Evansville, where he will take up the practice of law.

The Ripley County Bar Association held its annual meeting at the Freeman Hotel in Osgood, Saturday evening, December 21.

L. L. Bomberger, prominent Hammond attorney, delivered an address to members of the Porter County Bar Association at its semi-annual meeting held Tuesday evening, January 5, in the Hotel Lembke, Valparaiso. Attorney Bomberger spoke on "Delays in Appellate Procedure and Practice."

Isaac Carter, Indianapolis attorney, addressed members of the Huntington County Bar Association, Monday evening, January 11, at the Elks Club in Huntington.

Judge Walter E. Treanor, member of the Indiana Supreme Court, addressed members of the Tippecanoe County Bar Association at their luncheon meeting at the Lahr Hotel in Lafayette, Saturday, January 9.

The Gibson County Bar Association held its annual banquet Saturday evening, January 9, at the Hotel Kidd in Princeton. The following officers were elected: Thomas Duncan, president; A. Dale Eby, vice-president; Gerald E. Hall, treasurer, and Joe Funk, secretary.

Floyd Newby of Knightstown was elected president of the Henry County Bar Association, Tuesday, January 5, following a luncheon at the Sanders Cafe in New Castle.

The Owen County Bar Association held its annual meeting January 8, 1932, and the following officers were elected: James R. Miller, president; Claude Hoskins, vice-president; Arthur T. Hoadley, treasurer; and J. E. Rodenback, secretary.

The Elkhart County Bar Association held their first meeting of the year at the Hotel Elkhart, Tuesday night, January 8. The following officers were elected: Willard Chester, president; Aldo J. Simpson, vice-president; Paul L. Myers, secretary; and Claud A. Lee, treasurer.

At the annual banquet of the Hamilton County Bar Association, T. E. Kane was chosen president, and Justin Roberts, secretary and treasurer.