

4-1932

News of Bench and Bar

Follow this and additional works at: <https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj>

Part of the Legal Profession Commons

Recommended Citation

(1932) "News of Bench and Bar," Indiana Law Journal: Vol. 7 : Iss. 7 , Article 11.

Available at: <https://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ilj/vol7/iss7/11>

This Special Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Journals at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Journal by an authorized editor of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact rvaughan@indiana.edu.

JEROME HALL LAW LIBRARY

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Maurer School of Law
Bloomington

NEWS OF BENCH AND BAR

Attorney General James M. Ogden spoke before the Vanderburg County Bar Association on "Abraham Lincoln, the Lawyer" March 8, 1932.

Joseph T. Meredith, county treasurer and member of the Delaware County Bar Association, spoke before the Muncie Bar Association at the noon luncheon March 4, 1932.

The monthly dinner meeting of the St. Joseph County Bar Association was held in the dining room of the Indiana and University Clubs at South Bend, March 9, 1932. Professor Bernard C. Gavit of the Indiana University Law School was the principal speaker of the evening.

Attorney Arthur D. Unversaw spoke before the March meeting of the Howard County Bar Association at the Frances Hotel in Kokomo Tuesday evening, March 8.

The Monroe County Bar Association, at their meeting in the court room at Bloomington Wednesday, March 9, elected Attorney Robert G. Miller as president for the ensuing year. Other officers chosen were: T. J. Loudon, vice-president; Charles B. Waldron, secretary, and James Register, treasurer.

Dr. L. M. Sears of the history and economics department of Purdue University gave an address on the "Life of Washington" before the Tippecanoe County Bar Association Thursday evening, February 18, at the Lafayette club in Lafayette.

Judge John F. Neal spoke before a special meeting of the Hamilton County Bar Association, held in the court room at Noblesville, February 22, 1932.

Frederick Landis, Logansport editor, addressed members of the Huntington County Bar Association and their families at the Masonic Temple at Huntington Friday evening, February 19.

The Fountain County Bar Association held their annual meeting and banquet at the South Side cafe in Covington, February 22, 1932. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Claud B. Philpott, of Covington; vice-president, Forrest Wallace, of Veedersburg; secretary-treasurer, Charles E. Massey, of Covington.

Henry M. Dowling, Indianapolis attorney, spoke on "Washington, the Ideal American Citizen," before members of the Indianapolis Bar Association at a dinner-meeting at the Indianapolis Athletic Club Wednesday evening, March 2.

Clarence Darrow, famous criminal lawyer, spoke at the annual banquet of the Terre Haute Bar Association Saturday night, February 27, in the ball room of the Deming Hotel. More than six hundred people, including notable barristers from all parts of the state, were present at this meeting.