President Injured.

Coaching Party Struck By A Trolley Car.

LINCOLN, Mass., Sept. 4.—A tragic affair occurred not far from here this afternoon, when a coach carrying a party of coaches from the ex-President and Mrs. Lincoln was struck by a trolley car, and both of the occupants of the car were killed, and one of the coaches was dashed to pieces by the impact.

The coach was on the main line, and was carrying the ex-President and Mrs. Lincoln, and a number of their friends. The accident occurred at a crossing, and the car was at the point where the track crosses a railway line, when the coach was struck by the trolley car, which was proceeding on the other line.

The body of the ex-President was found in the car, and that of Mrs. Lincoln in the coach. The ex-President was killed instantaneously, and Mrs. Lincoln was released from the car, and was taken to the hospital, where she died a short time afterward.
