THE STATE UNIVERSITY

Under President Swain’s Administration an Era of Unexampled Prosperity. The Effective and Some False Impressions Are Removed. Illustrated Sketches of the Several Important Departments.

According to statistics published a few years ago, there were not more than two or three high schools in the United States. Many of those institutions are out of mediocrity inferior. The educational system of the country has become a problem of the greatest importance. And the manner in which the public is educated has become a most important factor in the development of the country. The public is educated and the manner in which it is educated has a great influence on the development of the country.

No longer does it seem necessary to erect the necessary buildings and purchase the necessary books. The University is now assured. No longer does it seem necessary to build the necessary buildings and purchase the necessary books. The University is now assured.
