Focus on the Law School Community

SERVICE, EXPERIENCE, CAREER CONTACTS: EXPLORE CAC AND CLC AT THEIR OPEN HOUSE
The Child Advocacy Clinic (CAC) and Community Legal Clinic (CLC) cordially invite all law school students, staff and faculty to an Open House on Wednesday, March 4, from 4:00 to 6:00, at the Clinic offices on Third Street directly across from the law school. (The clinic is the brick house in the middle of the block.) Clinic faculty and students will be on hand to show off their newly refurbished quarters and to acquaint everyone with the Clinic's work. Food will be served.

Students interested in clinical experience either for this summer or next year should take this opportunity to learn more about the Clinic. Both CLC and CAC provide students with opportunities to gain courtroom and pre-trial litigation experience and first-hand knowledge of family law. In addition, Clinic students develop career opportunities through direct contact with judges, attorneys and public agencies, and at the same time provide valuable services to local communities.

JEAN JANISSE, CLINIC COORDINATOR: ASSISTING THOSE IN NEED
Vulnerable children who need an advocate, battered individuals who need protection, indigent families who need legal services these are the people Jean Janisse, as Clinic Coordinator, strives to help. As Clinic Coordinator, Ms. Janisse provides the point of initial contact for people who are often desperate and many times angry; yet, Jean finds the patience to listen.

Her job entails facilitating communication between the people the clinic serves and the legal system they encounter.

Although the clinic's work is demanding, Jean keeps her sense of humor and helps lessen the stress by providing comic relief.
As a motivator and resource for information she is also a valuable asset to the students who participate in the program.

WINNING STUDENTS: FCLJ MOOT COURT TEAM
The Federal Communications Law Journal Moot Court Team competed at the 1998 National Telecommunications Moot Court Competition held in Washington, D.C. on February 20-21. After three rounds of argument the team had the highest score of all 16 teams and advanced to the semi-finals before being narrowly defeated by the University of Dayton-Ohio. Congratulations to team members, Jim McHie, Steve Rich and Craig Riegler.

LOANS FOR 1998-99
Now is the time to focus on making sure that you submit your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) renewal form. If you have not received your renewal form (or you are a new borrower), you should fill out a new application form (available in Room 024 and the Financial Aids Office). The deadline for priority consideration (i.e., to insure that your loans are available in a timely manner) is March 1. The Financial Aids Certification (FAC) form is not required for loans for the academic year. However, it is required for loans you may wish to receive for this SUMMER. Again, forms are available in both offices. Private loan applications for amounts in excess of $18,500 are not yet available. You will receive notice when they are. See Dean Fromm if you have any questions.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS
Applications to be considered for an EOF are available in Room 024. These fellowships are awarded to students who, for one reason or another, have been unable to fully develop their scholastic abilities, and thus have not performed as well as they think they could.

SUMMER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS
A few spaces remain for the SPEA- sponsored summer programs in Paris and Brussells (May 18-29) and in Bonn, Frankfort, and Geneva (May 31-June 12). Each program is worth two credits. Applications are available in Room 024.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS FOR 1998-99
Application forms for next year will be available in Room 024. The deadline for applying will be in early April.

BAR APPLICATIONS
Indiana State Bar applications for the July exam are available in the Recorder's Office. The mailing deadline for the application is April 1, 1998.

SUMMER B710 INDEPENDENT CLINICAL PROJECT
Spaces remain at this time for summer externships in Indianapolis in the Environmental Adjudication Office and the Utility Consumer Counselor's Office. Please see Dean Fromm as soon as possible if interested.
LAW STUDENT WRITING COMPETITIONS
This is another reminder that there are many writing competitions available for law students to enter. Most of these include cash prizes; several include publishing opportunities. You can find postings outside the door to Room 024. A comprehensive listing is found at the University of Memphis Law School Website http://www.people.memphis.edu/-law/.

So, dust off your seminar and B706 research papers and find the competitions that are relevant. Over the years many of our students have won some lucrative awards.

SUMMER SCHEDULE
The summer schedule is attached to the hardcopy of the ILA. It will be sent as a separate announcement that will follow the electronic version of the ILA.

News from Career Services

STATE COURT CLERKSHIPS
Current clerks with the Indiana Court of Appeals will talk about the benefits of clerking at the state court level, post-graduation. The discussion will include how to apply to the courts, and interview strategies. Court clerks will discuss their experiences, Wednesday, March 4 at 12:15 p.m. in the Moot Court Room (Room 123).

DEBT MANAGEMENT
CSO will offer a debt management seminar on Wednesday, March 11 at noon in Room 125. This seminar will address various ways to manage your student loan debt. Students concerned about making ends meet once they graduate can prepare for the future now. This is an issue for any student (1L - 3L) with student loan debt. Learn what you can do now to avoid surprises later.

Lectures
LATINO LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION SPONSORS
LECTURE ON INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW
On Tuesday March 10, there will be a lecture in the Moot Court Room from 12:00-1:00. The lecture is entitled, "Bilateral and Unilateral Efforts to Effectively Combat International Organized Crime."

The lecturer is Professor Jimmy Gurule. Professor Gurule is a tenured faculty member of the Notre Dame Law School. He was nominated by George Bush to be Assistant Attorney General for the US Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs. As Assistant Attorney General, Professor Gurule directed research and statistical studies on criminal justice reform and supervised the development of innovative programs to address the problems of violent crime, narcotics trafficking, gang-related crime, as well as the needs of crime victims.

From 1985 to 1989, Professor Gurule served as an Assistant US Attorney in the office of the US Attorney in Los Angeles, California, where he was the Deputy Chief of the Major Narcotics Section. In 1990 he was awarded the Attorney General's Distinguished Service Award and the Drug Enforcement Administrator's Award (the highest award given by the DEA) for his work in successfully prosecuting the assailants of DEA Special Agent Enrique Camarena. In 1991 he received the prestigious Edmund J. Randolph Award from the US Attorney General in recognition of his outstanding leadership and service to the Department of Justice.

Please come out and enjoy this exciting and interesting lecture.

BORIS TOPORIN: THE 1993 RUSSIAN CONSTITUTION
Boris Topornin will speak on the 1993 Russian Constitution. Mr. Topornin is director of the Institute of State and Law (IGP) of the Russian Academy of Sciences (RAN). IGP is Russia's main center for legal and political science research. He helped to write the 1993 constitution and is the principal author of the most authoritative commentary on the constitution. He will give his presentation Tuesday, March 3 at 3:30 p.m., in the Oak Room at IMU.

COURTROOM DRAMA REFLECTS CULTURE: PATTEN SERIES PRESENTS ROBERT FERGUSON
Robert Ferguson, Professor of English and Law at Columbia is the next lecturer in the Patten Series. His work examines American culture as reflected in judicial practice. He will be lecturing on the evenings of Tuesday, March 3, in Education, Room 1120 at 7:30 p.m. and Thursday, March 5 at the same time and place. His overview topic is "Courtroom and Community in American Culture." Individual titles of the lectures are (1) "Watching Justice Fail: Spectacle and the Female Victim in Trials of National Transformation" and (2) "Seeing Justice Done: Ritual and Trial Performance in Television America."
