AFL-CIO COUNSEL VISITS THIS WEEK

Attorney Marsha Berzon is visiting the Law School this week as part of the Law School's Practitioner-In-Residence Program. Ms. Berzon serves as Associate General Counsel for the AFL-CIO and is an Early Neutral Evaluator and mediator for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. Ms. Berzon was nominated to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit by President Clinton in January, 1998, and is awaiting confirmation.

During her visit, Ms. Berzon will be participating in several law classes, including Women in the Law, Employment Law, Legal Professions and Trial Process. On Wednesday, October 14, 1998 she will have breakfast with the presidents of the Law School student organizations. Ms. Berzon will meet with members of PILF and the Women's Law Caucus the same day at 4:15 p.m. (both events will be held in the 3rd floor Faculty Lounge). On Thursday, October 15, Ms. Berzon will discuss her legal career and the judicial confirmation process. The talk will be held at 12:00 p.m. in Room 122; all students are invited to attend. Questions regarding Ms. Berzon's visit may be directed to Professor Aviva Orenstein or Associate Dean Kelly Townes.

INDIANA CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION PRESENTS PANEL DISCUSSION ON PROS AND CONS OF GUN CONTROL

The Indiana Civil Liberties Union will present a panel discussion on the Pros and Cons of Gun Control, Tuesday, October 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the Law School Faculty Lounge. Speakers include the Law School's resident sportsman, Earl Singleton. Law students and the public are invited.

THE DEADLY SINS OF ORAL ADVOCACY
On Tuesday, October 13, George T. Patton, Jr. of Bose McKinney & Evans will present a discussion on the oral advocacy in Room 123 (Moot Court Room) at 4:30 p.m. The Moot Court Board is sponsoring the event.

George T. Patton, Jr., is a graduate of Indiana University School of Law, cum laude 1987, and practices primarily in appellate litigation, voting rights, and administrative law. He was an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Appellate Advocacy at the Indiana University School of Law - Bloomington for five years and has been the author of three annual articles in the Indiana Law Review on appellate procedure. He also co-authored a chapter on appellate briefs in The Attorney's Guide to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Prior to joining the firm, he served for two years as a judicial law clerk to Indiana Chief Justice Randall T. Shepard. Mr. Patton is currently Chairperson of the Appellate Practice Section, Indiana State Bar Association.

Mr. Patton's discussions in previous years have focused on the "deadly sins" of oral advocacy. This discussion should be both entertaining and informative. We encourage all interested students to attend.

FACULTY AND NINTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS NOMINEE DEMONSTRATE THE ART OF APPELLATE ADVOCACY

On Thursday, October 15, Professors Aviva A. Orenstein and Seth Lahn and Practitioner-in-Residence Marsha Berzon will demonstrate the art of appellate advocacy in Room 123 (Moot Court Room) at 7:00 p.m.

Professor Orenstein teaches in the areas of Evidence, Legal Professions, and Children and the Law. Professor Orenstein received her J.D. from Cornell Law School and clerked for the Honorable Judge Edward R. Becker in the Third Circuit Court of Appeals from 1987 to 1988. She was a member of the faculty at Rutgers Law School before joining IU Law Faculty.

Professor Seth Lahn joined the Law School in 1995 and teaches Legal Research and Writing. He also is the Assistant Director of the Child Advocacy Clinic. Professor Lahn received his J.D. from Yale Law School and clerked for the Honorable Edward Cahn. He then entered private practice with Webster & Sheffield in New York from 1983 to 1989. After private practice, Professor Lahn served as Assistant Commissioner at the Indiana Department of Human Services, Deputy General Counsel with the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration, and Deputy Attorney General for the State of Indiana.

Ms. Berzon serves as Associate General Counsel for the AFL-CIO and has been nominated to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit by President Clinton. Her legal career includes clerkship for Justice William J. Brennan, Jr., of the U.S. Supreme Court and for Judge James R. Browning of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

The Moot Court Board encourages all who are interested to attend what promises to be a very informative demonstration.

JUDICIAL CLERKSHIP INFORMATION SESSION
The Committee on Career Services and Judicial Clerkships cordially invites you to attend an information session on judicial clerkships on Wednesday, October 14, 1998, at noon in the Moot Court Room. Every student considering applying for a clerkship in the federal courts should attend this session. The session will include presentations by '98 IU grads, Carla Garino and Jason Basile, who have clerkships in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana. Ms. Garino and Mr. Basile will describe their clerkship experiences and the reasons why they opted to start their post-graduation careers with clerkships. They also will take questions from students. In addition, Professors Sophia Goodman and Sarah Jane Hughes will discuss the clerkship application process and schedule. Clerkships in the federal courts are prestigious ways to begin legal careers and lead to employment opportunities with major law firms, the Department of Justice, and the various United States Attorneys Offices around the country. Clerkships are considered highly desirable for persons interested in teaching, particularly in teaching in law schools. In recent years, two IU graduates who have had Federal Court of Appeals clerkships have gone on to teach law, including Kellye Testy (who will be a visiting professor here in the Spring) and Scott Idleman. Dean Fred Aman, Associate Dean Lauren Robel, and Professors Gene Shreve, David Williams, Susan Williams, Joe Hoffmann, Bruce Markell, Aviva Orenstein, Dan Conkle, Craig Bradley, Bob Heidt, Dawn Johnsen, and Sophia Goodman, among other faculty, had federal court clerkships before joining the faculty. Members of the Committee on Career Services and Judicial Clerkships and staff of the Career Services Office are available to assist every interested student in finalizing their applications for judicial clerkships. If you have questions about clerkships or the application process, we urge you first to come to the briefing session on October 14, or to view the tape of the session that will be available in the CSO.

Students interested primarily in clerkships with federal bankruptcy and magistrate judges and with state court judges are welcome at the October 14th session. CSO will arrange another orientation session covering these clerkships in mid-January. Applications for these positions typically are due in the late winter or early spring.

NEWS FROM THE RECORDER

SECOND SEMESTER 1998-99 REGISTRATION

As usual, law students will register for Law School courses for the second semester in-house. Joint degree students and those taking an outside (non-law) course may pick up their admission ticket from the Recorder's Office, starting Monday, October 19. Students will then be able to use this ticket to register for those outside courses with the University at scheduled times on October 22 and 23 for priority consideration. Registering at a later date for these courses remains a possibility. In addition, students who are not joint degree students will need to have Dean Fromm's prior approval to register for an outside course. Approval forms are in Rooms 022 and 024.

Here is the schedule for in-house registration for all law courses:

3Ls (May & August 1999 graduates) - Wednesday, October 21
1Ls - Friday, October 23 (students will learn to which sections they have been assigned when they go through registration in the Recorder's Office, Room 022)

2Ls - Monday, October 26

LLM, MCL, SJD, Certificate of Legal Studies, Exchange students - Monday, Oct. 26

Usual priority rules will apply for second- and third-year students. Priority will be lost, however, if students miss registering during their assigned October 21 and 26 dates. As usual, there is no priority given for first-in-line to register during the assigned days.

Schedule grids and course descriptions (2Ls and 3Ls) will be placed in the mail slots. Some additional information will be posted on the Student Affairs bulletin board adjacent to the mail slots.

INDIANA STATE BAR APPLICATIONS

Indiana State Bar applications for the February 1999 exam are available in the Recorder's Office. The filing deadline is November 15, 1998.

NEWS FROM STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICE

MPRE (Multi-state Professional Responsibility Exam)

The MPRE is scheduled for Friday, November 13. It will be held again in March, August, and November of 1999. The deadline for applying for this coming November is October 16, with November 4 being a late application deadline upon the payment of an extra fee. Application packets are available in Room 024.

Each year rumors abound about how the exam is changing. Indeed, the examination coverage is changing somewhat, starting with the March exam. Those changes are enumerated on the bulletin boards adjacent to the mail slots and across the corridor from Room 022. However, there is no accuracy to the rumor that the exam will become an essay exam; it will continue to be multiple choice.

Also, please note that Indiana and some other states permit the taking of this exam within two years of graduation; i.e., one could take it during the second year of law school. But, please note especially that Illinois and some other states require that the exam be taken no earlier than the third year of law school. Florida currently does not permit one to take this exam until the regular bar exam has been taken.

Finally, BAR/BRI will be holding a review session for the November MPRE exam approximately a week before the exam. Representatives will be taking applications shortly.
The Lawyer's Bar Review, the Indiana-based bar review that most of our graduates have taken, has announced that it has been purchased by BAR/BRI. It will continue to service students, but under the BAR/BRI ownership. BAR/BRI is apparently now in all 50 states.

GRADUATE PICTURE TAKING

Graduation picture taking for the composite graduation pictures (see the second floor corridor walls) will take place on November 4 and again on November 10 for students graduating this December, next May, and next August. This includes all the JD graduates, and all the MCL, LLM, and SJD graduates as well. The sign-up sheets for reserving your picture-taking time are on the bulletin board in the corridor across from Room 022. Thanks.

SMOKER ALERT

When smoking on the garden patio, please exercise prudence regarding the volume level of animated conversation when noticing that a class is being held in the adjacent Room 121.

PROTECTIVE ORDER PROJECT SPONSORS DONATION DRIVE FOR MY SISTER'S CLOSET

A group of women in the community are organizing My Sister's Closet as a lending closet of clothing especially for the purpose of providing workforce attire for women pursuing employment in a job search program. The Closet, when it opens within a few weeks, will supply interview clothing and will continue to support women in the first weeks of employment until they become self-sufficient in providing their own work clothing. The organizers need donations of work attire--blazers, skirts, blouses, sweaters, tailored trousers, and footwear. They also need money donations to procure hosiery and to pay cleaning expenses and rent for the "store." At this point, anyone wishing to donate should contact the group at The Rise, the residential facility on South Washington operated by Middle Way House, or leave items with the P.O.P. in Room 010 during office hours from noon to 1:00 p.m. on weekdays.
