School-wide Ethics Training

The Access to Justice Program and the Office of Student Affairs are holding a mandatory training for students doing pro bono work through a student service program, ILS, or D10. This training is not intended to interfere with any individualized training these projects provide but to set a common baseline and framework for understanding core ethical issues of confidentiality, conflicts, competence, and unauthorized practice of law. Prof. Aviva Orenstein will conduct the training, mixing lecture and hypotheticals. Students who have attended the training previously need not attend.

The training will take place on Wednesday, Sept. 5, from noon to 1:00 in the moot court room. Students need to RSVP through Symplicity, and the law school will provide lunch for those students who RSVP.
We'll also record the training for students who cannot attend on the 5th but wish to volunteer. These students are required to watch the DVD, which will be available on e-reserve at the library, and then answer hypotheticals about ethics issues typical in pro bono service.

Call Back Interview Workshop

Caroline Dowd-Higgins will review call back interviews and offer protocols. Pizza will be provided to those who RSVP on Symplicity 24 hours in advance. Room 125, noon.

Thursday, September 6

APALSA Call-out Meeting

Come enjoy delicious Chinese food and meet the Asian Pacific American Law Student Association! Learn about our exciting social events and workshops planned for the fall semester. Room 122, noon.

Call-out Meeting for Four Student Groups

Law Students for Reproductive Justice, the Feminist Law Forum, American Constitution Society, and Outlaw will be hosting a joint call-out meeting for interested students to learn a bit about each group. Room 121, noon.

Business & Law Society Call-out Meeting

Are you interested in start-up ventures, running a non-profit, commercial litigation, or corporate transactions? The intersection of law and commerce is pervasive. To that end, the Business & Law Society [BLS] is holding its fall semester call-out to discuss upcoming events, competitions, and projects planned for this academic year. Come meet us during the lunch hour and learn more. Room 120, noon.

ELS Call-out Meeting

Call-out meeting for all students interested in being a member of the Environmental Law Society this year. Join us for lunch for a brief description of the organization and our plans for this year. Pizza will be provided. Room 124, noon.

Friday, September 7

Graduate Legal Studies Colloquium

Regular weekly gathering of graduate students to discuss research interests and common academic concerns. Featuring Prof. Sarah Jane Hughes. Room 214, 11:45.

ISBA Meet and Greet Reception

The Indiana State Bar Association Young Lawyers' Section is excited to host a meet and greet reception with complimentary drinks and hors d'oeuvres at Farm Bloomington restaurant from 6:30-8:30 p.m. This is a wonderful opportunity to network and meet young lawyers that have made the transition from law school to the practice of law! It's also a great chance to learn more about the community service opportunities, networking events, and so much more that is offered through participation in the ISBA Young Lawyers Section. If you plan to attend this reception, RSVP to Carissa Long at clong@inbar.org or call 800.266.2581.

Protective Order Project Returning Volunteer Training

The Protective Order Project will be holding a required training for ALL returning volunteers. It should take less than an hour and lunch will be provided. If you cannot attend this training but would like to continue your involvement with POP this year, please email us at pop@indiana.edu

Room 122, noon.

CJAM Basic Mediation Training

The Community Justice Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 32-hour basic mediation training for any community member interested in helping facilitate community mediation. The fall training will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. over two weekends, September 8-9 and 22-23, at the Law School. Participants who complete the training are eligible to work as CJAM volunteer mediators; however, any community member interested in learning basic mediation skills is welcome to participate. The training will be led by senior mediators from the Community Justice and Mediation Center. Tuition is $200, with scholarships available. Registration forms are at www.cjam.org. For more information or an application, e-mail training@cjam.org. New this fall, CJAM will offer in September a Restorative Justice Practitioners training which will qualify for participation in CJAM's Community Voices Program (formerly Victim Offenders Reconciliation Program).

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

The Indiana Law Annotated (ILA) is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
