Sherman Minton Moot Court Spring Rounds
This week begins the spring rounds of the law school's flagship moot court program. The spring rounds are in single-elimination tournament style, which makes them extremely exciting and engaging.
The Octofinals of the competition are today and Wednesday from 6-10 p.m. The Quarterfinals are this Friday from 6-10 p.m. and Saturday from 3-7 p.m. All arguments will be on the first floor of the law school with signs directing competitors and spectators to argument rooms.

Please note: arguments are open to the public, however no competitor may watch another competitor's argument unless or until they are eliminated from the spring rounds. Congratulations, competitors, and good luck!

Race, Sexuality, and Movements for Civil Rights: A Comparative Discussion

Join us for a discussion of historical and personal perspectives on the similarities and differences between the African American and LGBT movements for civil rights. Panelists are Carl Butler, JD'04, corporate counsel, Angie's List, Indianapolis; Yolanda Edwards, JD'03, attorney, Counsel on Call, Atlanta; Professor Colin R. Johnson, IU Department of Gender Studies; and Professor Steve Sanders. Opening remarks by James Wimbush, IU Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs. Presented by BLSA and OUTlaw in recognition of Black History Month. Lunch. Moot Court Room, noon.

Wednesday, February 26

Student Affairs Session: Your First Semester Is Over. What now?

All 1Ls are invited to this session on learning from the first semester experience and planning for a successful second semester. Room 124, noon. Repeats Thursday in room 125 at 4:00, and Friday in room 124 at noon.

Thursday, February 27

The Center will host a presentation by Professors Brian Broughman and Deborah Widiss titled "After the Override: An Empirical Analysis of Shadow Precedent." Refreshments. Room 122, 4:00.

3L Session with US Attorney Joe Hogsett

Mr. Hogsett will hold a special session to meet with 3Ls interested in his line of work. He has insights on the hiring process, the DOJ, and nationwide opportunities. He is encouraging 3Ls to bring resumes so he can get to know you in a group setting. Space is limited. View Mr. Hogsett's full bio and RSVP on Symplicity. Lewis Building, room 211, 4:30.

Tax Sitcom Night: Who Said Taxes Aren't Funny?

Join your friends for a viewing of three classic sitcoms with plots revolving around our friends at the IRS. Episodes of The Honeymooners, All in the Family, and Roseanne will be shown, introduced by Prof. Lawrence A. Zelenak of Duke University. A Q&A session will follow the last screening, and popcorn and soft drinks will be served. Presented by the Maurer Tax Program. Room 335, 5:00-6:45 p.m.

Law School Musical Auditions

Spring is finally approaching, and that can only mean one thing: it's time for our annual celebration of song, dance, and the absurdity that comes with the law school experience! This week, all are encouraged to prepare a short musical piece to perform and be prepared to read a short monologue. Then come to auditions from 6:00-8:00 p.m. in room 121, or Friday from 3:00-5:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room.

Friday, February 28

Maurer School of Law Korean Law Forum

Join other Korean law students who are working on their thesis or dissertation as we share our fields of study but also examine differences between U.S. law and Korean law. The entire Indiana Law community is welcome to attend Library room 206E, 11 a.m.

Graduate Legal Studies Colloquium

The Colloquium is a weekly meeting of graduate students to discuss common academic concerns and research interests. This week: Professor Joonseok Park, an associate professor at Chonbuk National University School of Law in South Korea will speak. His talk is titled "Not to turn 'Directly' against Constitutional Value: A Legal Argument from Moral Theology." Room 120, noon.

Saturday, March 1

Minority Law Day

Minority Law Day is an opportunity for high school and college students to learn more about law school and the legal profession. Attendees will have the opportunity to discuss the admissions process and their legal interests with faculty, alumni and current students. If you know any high school or college students in the area who may benefit from attending Minority Law Day, please encourage them to join us on Saturday, March 1. There is no cost to attend, but please register on our website for planning purposes. Minority Law Day is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Mara in the Admissions Office at madberns@indiana.edu.
