Monday, March 31

Career Choices: Power Interviewing Workshop
What experiences are employers looking for? During this session, you can ask them. Lisa Brown, hiring partner of Schiff Hardin in Chicago, will discuss the firm’s hiring process, which relies on this approach. To make this session more concrete, Ms. Brown will be doing a mock interview of Matt Pfaff, JD'13, who got a job with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau in Washington, DC, by scoring in the top 5% of a structured behavioral interview process. Then we will debrief. After attending this session, you will understand Indiana Law's Fromm Six competency model at a deeper and more practical level that is directly linked to your future career goals. Lunch provided to those who RSVP at least 24 hours in advance. Moot Court Room, noon.

Society for Law and the Arts National Cultural Heritage Law Moot Court Competition Team Call-Out
If you are interested in participating in next year's competition team for this event, please attend this meeting. This year's competitors will be there to share their stories about the experience and what it takes to win "Best Brief" and "Second Place Overall" We will give out information on how to apply for next year's team. Lunch provided. Room 120, noon.

Christian Legal Society Bible Study
Room 206E, noon.

Tuesday, April 1

PILF's Singing for Summer Salaries
Join the Public Interest Law Foundation for an hour of fun, prizes, auctions, and bidding to have your favorite professor sing in front of the entire student body! All proceeds benefit PILF’s summer scholarship fund to provide scholarships to Maurer students serving in unpaid public interest internships over the summer. Moot Court Room, noon.

Access to Justice Pro Bono Fellowship Applications

Applications are now being accepted by the Access to Justice Program for a pro bono fellow to work in the 2014-2015 school year. The fellowship will continue through the 2015-2016 school year. A 1L student will be chosen to help coordinate the school's student pro bono program with the rising 3L fellow. Responsibilities include: coordinating a pro bono fair, tracking student pro bono hours, working with student organizations and the Office of Career and Professional Development, conducting student outreach, and acting as liaison with attorneys to match students with pro bono projects. Traditionally, fellows have received full funding to attend the ABA's Equal Justice Conference in May. Students will also receive a stipend. Applications consisting of a short cover letter with a statement of interest and a resume should be sent electronically to Megan Boelstler and Kayleen Glaser at wedogood@indiana.edu by Monday, April 7, 2014 by 5 p.m. Please redact GPA and class rank.
Nominations for 2L and 3L SBA Representatives

Nominations for Student Bar Association 2L and 3L Representatives are now open. This means that any current 1L or 2L student may be nominated. Candidates may be nominated until 5p.m. on Friday. The nomination box and slips are beside the circulation desks, and students may nominate as many candidates as they’d like. Candidates will be contacted on Friday evening regarding their nomination, and they will have until Sunday at 6p.m. to accept it. Julie Spain will contact all candidates who properly accept their nomination on Sunday evening to let them know when they may officially start campaigning. Anyone who campaigns early will be disqualified. Please email jaspain@indiana.edu with questions. Elections for 2L and 3L Student Bar Association Representatives will occur on April 8th and 9th. Candidates may campaign on April 7th, and on the 8th and 9th during all non-election hours.

Sign up now for the Inaugural Maurer vs. McKinney School of Law Softball Tournament

SBA is proud to announce that the inaugural Maurer-McKinney softball tournament will be held on April 12th, time TBD. There will be three games, divided by law school class. Each class can have sixteen people on its team, and everyone else is invited to come cheer on your peers! Sign up at the SBA table in the lobby any day this week. Sign-ups will end on April 9th, or when the spots have been filled. Snacks will be provided, and the school that wins two out of the three games will have the tournament trophy on display until next year's games. Contact Hannah Dill at hmdill@indiana.edu with any questions.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services
Send requests for A-V services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
