Spring National Security Law Course and Simulation Exercise

As an extension of his spring national security law course, B574, Professor Delaney has the opportunity to enroll four Indiana Law JD students in a multi-day, inter-school crisis law simulation exercise hosted by Georgetown Law. Students must be enrolled in B574 this spring to be eligible for the March 26-29 exercise. Please contact Professor Delaney by email as soon as possible (dgdelane@indiana.edu) if you are interested in participating in the exercise, or simply to discuss the possibility in greater detail. Your response will not bind you to enrolling in B574 or participating in the exercise, but the level of student response will help determine whether to accept Georgetown's invitation. If there is sufficient student interest, a selection process will be established to identify the law school's four participants.

IP Externship Opportunities

IP Externship opportunities for the spring 2015 term are now available through Indiana Law CareerNet. The deadline to apply is Sunday, September 28. Positions are available with the IU Libraries and Office of Scholarly Publishing Copyright Program, Cook Medical, IU Research and Technology Corporation, IU Licensing & Trademarks, Berry Plastics, Crane, Indiana Office for Defense Development, Hill-Rom and the Purdue Research Foundation.

For questions about the externships, please contact Professor Janis (mdjanis@indiana.edu) or Allison Hess (allhess@indiana.edu). For questions about the application process through Indiana Law CareerNet, please contact Kim Bunge (kbunge@indiana.edu) in the Career Services Office.

Participants, fellow students, and family are all welcome to attend.

Stewart Fellows Externship Program Applications

The Stewart Fellows Overseas Externship Program is now accepting applications from 1Ls and 2Ls for summer 2015 in Thailand at Tilleke & Gibbins Law Firm. Information about the externship opportunity and application process is posted on Indiana Law CareerNet. Interested students should contact Ms. Lara Gose (lgose@indiana.edu) in the Office of International Programs (room 220) with questions. The Stewart Fellows program offers externships in several other countries, and an information session on the Stewart Fellows program will take place later in the fall semester - watch the ILA for details. The application period for other Stewart Fellows externships will open in December.

Conflict Resolution Training: Community Mediation and Restorative Justice

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 48-hour training program for community members interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, the sources of conflict, and the processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training should benefit any community member concerned with managing conflict and its resolution. The training provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM’s programs.

The fall training will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. over six weekend days, September 13-14, 20, 27, and October 4-5 at the IU Maurer School of Law. The training will be led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners. Tuition is $300. Scholarships are available. For more information or an application, e-mail training@cjamcenter.org, phone the office at (812) 336-8677, or register at www.cjamcenter.org.
