Class of 2015: Support the Law Fund for Excellence, Get Free Shirt

3Ls: With graduation a mere two months away, now is a great time for you to thank your favorite professors or faculty members for their guidance and support over the last three years. By pledging any amount to the Law Fund for Excellence, the alumni and development office will send a tribute letter to a professor or faculty member you wish to thank post-graduation. And if you pledge at least $20.15 by March 13, you will receive a free "Class of 2015" t-shirt. Stop by the pledge campaign's table any time between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. to make a pledge. No payment will be expected until July 2016, and if you decide to lower your pledge amount later you may do so. Stop by our table or see any of the following members of the Pledge Campaign Committee to make a pledge or for more information: Steve Briles, Francesca Cardillo, Jamie Davis, Michael Deschenes, Anah Gouty, Sarah Haefner, John Pence, Spenser Rohler, or Zack Shapiro.

Announcing the Inaugural Maurer ADR Competition

The Advocacy Board is pleased to invite Maurer 2Ls and 3Ls to participate in the first Maurer Alternative Dispute Resolution Competition, which this year will be centered on international arbitration. The competition will be held March 27-29. Students compete in teams of two and may sign up with a partner or be paired up randomly. No prior experience with ADR is necessary, and there is no writing component to the competition. Prof. Angie Raymond will run a training session on Saturday, March 7, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. All competitors must attend the training session to be briefed on the rules, the competition structure, and the competition problem. Opportunity to participate in the ADR competition will be based on a first-come, first-served basis. Please e-mail lawmoot@indiana.edu with "Intent to Participate" in the subject line and your name in the e-mail no later than 11:59 p.m. on March 4.

International Student Research

Prof. Carole Silver, JD'80 — formerly on the Law School's faculty, now at Northwestern University Law School — is conducting research to learn about the experiences of international LLM and JD students as part of a larger study of globalization and legal education. International JD students interested in participating in the research should contact her at c-silver@law.northwestern.edu, or 312-503-1772, for information on arranging an interview.

International LLM students should participate by completing a survey or by contacting her with any questions or for more information.

Apply for IP Externship Opportunities

IP Externship opportunities for the summer and fall 2015 terms are now online. See Indiana Law CareerNet to apply — the application deadline is March 1. Applications are being accepted for the following: Berry Plastics, Cook Medical (internship), CMG Worldwide, U.S. Department of Energy (Chicago), Dow Agro (brand-new job posting), Hill-Rom, Indiana University Research and Technology Corporation (IURTC), IU Libraries and the Office of Scholarly Publishing, Copyright Program, IU Licensing and Trademarks, and NSWC Crane. General questions about the IP Externships should be directed to Professor Mark Janis (mdjanis@indiana.edu) and Allison Hess (allhess@indiana.edu). For questions about the application process through Indiana Law CareerNet, please contact Kim Bunge (kbunge@indiana.edu) in the Career Services Office.

Register today for CSO Career Exploration and Networking Trips to DC & New York

Students may begin to register for the spring break Career Exploration and Networking events in DC and NY. Students will be introduced to attorneys working for NY and DC government agencies, corporate legal departments, law firms, and public interest organizations. There will also be an alumni networking reception in each city. The CSO can help connect you with other students who will be attending so you can explore carpooling and/or sharing hotel expenses. Space is limited and travel plans are already being made so register early. Please contact the CSO for more details.

Research Assistants Needed to Update Trial Objections Handbook

Prof. Aviva Orenstein needs research assistants for her update of the Trial Objections Handbook. Students will assist in editing and proofreading text and footnotes and researching new cases. Knowledge of evidence, trial advocacy, and bluebook are a plus. Excellent writing skills and attention to detail are a must. If interested, please email a resume to: aorenste@indiana.edu.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact James Boyd (joboyd@indiana.edu; phone 855-0156). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
