This Week in the Law School

Happy Labor Day! Enjoy your day off. Come hang out with Dean Parrish on Wednesday. Free coffee. Interested in going to Argentina, Brazil, Thailand, or Vietnam this summer as a Stewart Fellow? Attend Friday's noon-time session to hear from students who were there this summer. Reminder: Stewart Fellows applications are due Oct. 17, so get started now if you're hoping to spend next summer abroad. Finally, Hoosiers Outrun Cancer takes place Sept. 17, and we'd love to have a huge Law School team out for one of the best events of the year. Team Fromm has consistently been one of the top fundraisers in this event, and we hope to keep it that way. Details in the announcements.

Labor Day. Classes do not meet.

Tuesday, September 6

Access to Justice Program Ethics Training

The AJP Ethics Training is mandatory for all students who want to participate in a pro bono student group during their time at Indiana Law. If you are a 2L or 3L who has already attended the training in years past, you do not need to attend the training for a second time. Lunch will be provided! RSVP through the Facebook event, available in the "all class" Facebook group or class of 2019 Facebook group. Moot Court Room, noon.

Business and Law Society Call-out Meeting
The Business and Law Society is hosting its call-out meeting for all students interested in corporate law and the intersection of law and business. Lunch will be provided. Room 125, 4:55 p.m.

Wednesday, September 7

Researching Statutes: Advanced Techniques and Tips
Statutory research is one of the most common (and important) tasks you'll do as a practicing attorney. Come to this brownbag session in the Jerome Hall Law Library to learn more. We'll review basic statutory research skills and go into advanced features on Westlaw, Lexis, and Bloomberg. This is the first in a series of research workshops given by the law librarians. Be on the lookout for future sessions this semester on case law research and administrative law research. To sign up for the workshop, go to the library's event calendar and register with your name and email address. Please feel free to bring your lunch. Jerome Hall Law Library, noon.

2L/3L Information Session
Join the Career Services Office and the Office of Student Affairs for information you need for the job search process and the bar application process, including timelines and advice. Moot Court Room, noon.

Coffee and Cookies with Dean Parrish
Join Dean Parrish for complimentary coffee and cookies. These casual events allow you to get to know your dean, ask any questions, raise concerns, or simply get to know one another. Jerome Hall Law Library Lobby, 2 p.m.

Women's Law Caucus, Feminist Law Forum, and Protective Order Project Call-out
Join the Women's Law Caucus, Feminist Law Forum, and Protective Order Project to learn more about these fantastic organizations. Food will be provided (and we promise it won't be pizza!). We look forward to seeing some new faces and welcoming back our returning members. Upstairs Pub, 5 p.m.

Thursday, September 8

ILAP Student Training
If you are interested in criminal law, would like to know more about the federal criminal process, or would just like to chip away at your pro bono hours while getting practical research experience, then come to the Inmate Legal Assistance Project training Thursday, September 8 at noon. Become qualified to work for ILAP or just come by to learn more about the organization. As if that isn't sweet enough, there will be an ice-cream sundae bar. Students who have worked with ILAP in the past should also attend as we've updated our policies and procedures. See you there. Moot Court Room, noon.

Information Session: NYU School of Law International Student Interview Program

The Law School participates in the NYU School of Law International Student Interview Program, which is a job fair for foreign-trained lawyers who are studying in LLM or SJD programs. Learn more about how to prepare for and take part in this opportunity at this information session. This presentation will feature Ms. Lara Gose and Dean Lesley Davis. Room 213, noon.

IP Colloquium: Marketa Trimble

Marketa Trimble, of UNLV's William S. Boyd School of Law, will be giving a talk titled "Geoblocking, Circumvention of Geoblocking, and Intellectual Property" as part of Professor Marshall Leaffer's IP Colloquium. Room 214, 1:15 p.m.

BLS/IPA Meet and Greet Happy Hour at Brothers

The Business and Law Society and the Intellectual Property Association are joint-hosting a meet and greet happy hour at Brothers. Whether you are a new member, current member, or just interested in either group, come meet and spend time with fellow law students. Please note that snacks and soda will be provided. See you there. Brothers, 6 to 8 p.m.

Friday, September 9

International Fridays: Stewart Fellows Overseas Externship Program Opportunities in Argentina, Brazil, Thailand, and Vietnam

1Ls and 2Ls are invited to this information session focused on the Stewart Fellows Overseas Externship Program placements in Argentina, Brazil, Thailand, and Vietnam. Learn about the application process and procedures from Ms. Lara Gose (Center on the Global Legal Profession), and hear from program alumni about their experiences. Please note that applications for these placements will be due October 17 (submitted through Indiana Law CareerNet). Room 124, noon.

LLM Thesis and SJD Information Session

Students in the LLM program who wish to transfer to the LLM thesis or the SJD program should attend this event to learn more about application deadlines and requirements. Room 215, noon.

POP New Volunteer Training

The Protective Order Project (POP) is holding a training session for new members. This training session is mandatory for anyone who would like to volunteer for POP this year. Dinner will be provided. Room 121, 2 to 6 p.m.
Announcements

Prof. Cole Seeking RA

Prof. Dan Cole is looking for a bright second- or third-year student to serve as a research assistant on an empirical research project concerning judicial review of EPA regulations. The research should not require more than 10 hours or so per week of work (at the standard law school wage). A 3.0 grade point average or better is required. Substantial experience using both Westlaw and Lexis is also a must. Experience preparing Excel spreadsheets is a plus. Having taken Environmental Law and/or Administrative Law is another plus. Please apply by email to dancole@indiana.edu. Your c.v. should be attached to the message, which should specify your credentials for the position in light of the factors mentioned in this advertisement.

Hoosiers Outrun Cancer: Join Team Fromm

Join other members of the Law School community on September 17 for one of the best events of the fall - Hoosiers Outrun Cancer. Anyone interested in participating in the event (which features both a 5k and one-mile run) is welcome to join Team Dean Fromm in honor of the late Len Fromm, our former dean of students. Be sure to click "Join Team" first, rather than the "Donate Now" button, which helps Team Fromm remain one of the best fundraising teams of the event. (Team Fromm has raised the most money outside of corporations and large businesses and doctor's offices for the past two years.) We look forward to seeing you on September 17.

Basic Mediation and Restorative Justice Training

The Community Justice and Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 40-hour training program for community members interested in learning about conflict resolution, mediation, and restorative justice. Participants will enhance their interpersonal skills in communication and listening, problem solving, and negotiation, and they will increase their understanding of restorative justice philosophy and methods, the sources of conflict, and the processes leading to constructive conflict resolution. The training should benefit any community member concerned with managing conflict and its resolution. The training provides the background and skills necessary to work as a community mediator and restorative justice practitioner and qualifies participants to volunteer in CJAM's programs. The training will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. over five weekend days: September 10-11, 24-25, and Oct 1. at the Law School. The training will be led by senior mediators and restorative justice practitioners. Tuition is $300, $275 if received by August 27th. Scholarships are available. For more information, e-mail training@cjamcenter.org or, phone the office at (812) 336-8677. Go to our website to download an application. Payment can be made by credit card at the website or by check with your application.

How to Schedule an Event
An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) by emailing (lawrooms@indiana.edu). If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact James Boyd (joboyd@indiana.edu; phone 855-0156). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Carl James (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
