Announcements
CONTRIBUTORS OF LEADING ARTICLES IN THIS ISSUE

Bernard C. Gavit, A. B. Wabash College, 1915; J. D. University of Chicago, 1920. Member of Lake County, Tenth District Bar Associations. In the practice of law at Hammond, Indiana, as a member of the firm of Ibach, Gavit, Stinson & Gavit, 1920-28; Professor of Law at the University of Oregon Law School, 1928-29 and at present Professor of Law in Indiana University Law School; frequent contributor to leading legal periodicals over the country.

C. Severin Buschmann of the Indianapolis Bar; member of the firm of Jones, Hammond and Buschmann; A. B. Indiana University, 1917; LL. B. Yale Law School, 1921. Mr. Buschmann has been a frequent contributor to the Indiana Law Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEMBERSHIP IN THE STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

The membership committee of the State Bar Association has been unusually active during the present year. A complete re-checking of the membership list was made in the fall pursuant to resolutions of the association at its annual meeting last summer. A definite list of all delinquent members was made and the Board of Managers has made a systematic effort to collect all delinquent dues. The reports of the treasurer and of the vice-president at the December meeting indicated that surprising and gratifying results are being achieved. Approximately $1,500 in delinquent dues has been collected. This has been largely due to the persistent efforts of the Board of Managers which has allotted the work among them by districts. With the continued efforts that are being made by Secretary Batchelor and the Board of Managers there is reason to believe that the major part of delinquent dues now outstanding will be collected by the end of the fiscal year.

The membership committee under the leadership of Mr. Richman is carrying on a continuous campaign to recruit new members for the association. A small pamphlet addressed “To the Lawyers of Indiana” setting forth in terse and persuasive lan-language the purposes and objectives of the association and advantages in membership therein is being distributed through the courtesy of the Bobbs-Merrill Publishing Co. The association is greatly indebted to the Bobbs-Merrill Co. for its gratuitous circulation of over 3,000 of these pamphlets.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Every member of the association is urged to cooperate with the membership committee and with the local committees in efforts to strengthen the association by obtaining new members. To exercise the influence and to render the public service that is expected from the Bar Association every reputable lawyer in the active practice in the state should be affiliated. It is only through the combined zeal of every member of the association that this goal can be attained.

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE INDIANA STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Application for membership in the Indiana State Bar Association: Fowler V. Harper, Bloomington, recommended by Thomas C. Batchelor, Frank N. Richman; John W. Moreland, Valparaiso, recommended by George I. White, Frank N. Richman; Charles B. Staff, Franklin, recommended by George I. White, Frank N. Richman; Mark W. Rhodes, Indianapolis, recommended by Thomas C. Batchelor, Charles E. Dare; Ralph H. Waltz, Noblesville, recommended by Thomas E. Kane, Meade Vestal; William G. Sparkes, Indianapolis, recommended by George R. Jeffrey, William Sparks; William F. Little, Noblesville, recommended by Thomas E. Kane, Meade Vestal; Adolph H. Zwimmer, Connersville, recommended by Leroy C. Hanby, Raymond S. Springer; Lewis F. Pomush, Indianapolis, recommended by William H. Reny, Howard M. Meyer; Dwight L. Shouse, Indianapolis, recommended by Joel A. Baker, Asa J. Smith, Griffith D. Dean; Peter A. Cancilla, Indianapolis, recommended by J. Hubert Hartman, Harvey Grabill; William C. Dennis, Richmond, recommended by Gustave H. Hoelocker, W. W. Miller; Jacob I. Spevak, South Bend, recommended by W. S. Carlisle, Arthur L. Way.